LIKE JOSEPH AND THE WIFE OF POTIPHAR

So Tenor Caruso Describes His Trouble With Woman in Monkey House.

TENOR SAYS HE WAS COY AND WOMAN GOT MAD

But Policeman Declares Caruso Pinched Woman and She Cried "You Brute! You Beast!" Great Crowd Attended Trial of Singer.

New York, November 21.—Enrico Caruso, the great Italian tenor, faced an audience of 600 persons in the Yorkville police court today and denied positively that he had made indecent advances to a woman in the monkey house in Central Park last Friday. He declared that his arrest was due to pique upon the part of a woman, who described herself as "Hannah Graham," because he failed to respond to advances which she made to him.

Woman Fears Notoriety.

Mrs. Graham was not present to press the charge which she lodged against the singer, and the police officers interested in the affair testified that they had exerted every effort to find the woman, but without avail.

Police Captain Stevens, of the Central Park station, said today that he was informed last night by a prominent business man, who knows Mrs. Graham, that she would not appear in court for anything, as she does not want to be snap-shotted and have her name all over the city and perhaps the country.

Park Policeman Cane was in court, however, and he told a circumstantial story of the alleged events which led to the arrest of the singer, being corroborated in part by other witnesses.

Woman Cried "You Beast."

Policeman Cane, who arrested Caruso, was the first witness. He gave some sensational testimony. He said that he saw Caruso move up close to Mrs. Graham and then saw one of Caruso's hands glide stealthily through a slit in his overcoat and then he saw Caruso pinch the woman. Mrs. Graham turned swiftly and struck Caruso in the chest, crying "You brute! You beast!"

Cane testified that he then stepped between the man and the woman, and, placing his hand on Caruso's shoulder, he asked the woman what had happened. She replied that the man had insulted her and that she wanted him arrested. She declared that she would willingly appear against him. She followed along to the police station and swore to the complaint.

Several other policemen, including the desk sergeant and the captain of the Cane's precinct, corroborated the officer as to the happenings in the police station at the time of the arrest.

Caruso Begged for Mercy.

They declared that Caruso pleaded with the woman not to prefer a charge against him and that with outstretched hands and in an imploring voice he declared "that is all a mistake. I meant no harm."

A young man who gave his name as Jeremiah McCarthy corroborated Cane's testimony as to Caruso's alleged action in the monkey house.

Against all this the singer placed what amounted practically to a flat denial of the whole case of the prosecution. He denied ability to speak English and declared that, therefore, it would have been impossible for him to have made the statement attributed to him by the police. He declared that the woman upon whose complaint he was arrested had smiled at him and by look and action invited attention, which he did not condescend to give.

Caruso was attended in court by Director Conreid, of the Metropolitan opera house, and a number of prominent singers.

When the cab containing Caruso, Director Conreid, of the Metropolitan opera house, and several of his friends reached the building an army of photographers greeted them and the crowd on the sidewalk sent up a yell. Again, when the singer and his friends were leaving the place after the case had been adjourned until tomorrow, Caruso was given a rousing cheer.

AUTO IS USED TO CROSS ISLE BY ROOSEVELT

President Lands at Ponce, Porto Rico, and Speeds to San Juan.

San Juan, P. R., November 21.—President Roosevelt today journeyed in an automobile over the famous military road from Ponce to San Juan and was accorded an ovation by the people of Porto Rico. The eighty mile trip was made in six hours and thirty minutes, counting the time taken up by stops at the principal towns along the route, where the president made short speeches to the people. The president, in all his speeches, dwelt upon the affection he held for the people of Porto Rico and assured them that he would use every effort to secure citizenship for them.

President Roosevelt arrived at Ponce this morning from Colon on board the battleship Louisiana. He was visited on board the vessel by Governor Winthrop, who extended a welcome to the island. The president at once went ashore and was greeted at the pier by Mayor Oppenheimer, of Ponce, and a delegation of prominent officials and citizens. The town, which was profusely decorated in the president's honor, was crowded with people from the surrounding country eager to greet Mr. Roosevelt.

DEATH CLAIMS BISHOP TIGERT

Passed Away in Indian Territory After Illness of Ten Days.

Tulsa, I. T., November 21.—Bishop John J. Tigert, of Louisville, Ky., died here at 6:45 this morning, after an illness of ten days, aged 50 years.

Bishop Tigert was taken ill while attending a church conference at Atoka, but disregarded the advice of his physician to rest. He came to Tulsa intending to open the conference here on the 14th, but was compelled to take to his bed. His illness was caused by the lodgment of a piece of chicken bone just below the tonsils. This caused an inflammation of the throat and resulted in blood poisoning.

The body of Bishop Tigert was embalmed today and placed in a casket in the parlor of the Brady hotel, where a last view was given to hundreds of friends in this city.

The casket was taken aboard the St. Louis and San Francisco east-bound train this afternoon on the way to Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Holland M. Tigert, the bishop's son, in charge of the body, will be met at Springfield, Mo., by Dr. McMurray, of St. Louis, secretary of the church extension society, and Dr. Grady, a prominent physician, of Nashville, who will accompany the body home. The funeral will be held immediately on arrival at Nashville. The news of the bishop's death has been withheld from Mrs. Tigert, who is suffering from acute heart disease.

Dr. Tigert was a son of John J. and Mary Van Veghten Tigert, of Louisville, where he was born November 25, 1856. He was graduated at the schools of Louisville and at the Vanderbilt university. He was granted a license to preach in September, 1875. From 1890 to 1894 he was a professor at Vanderbilt university, and in 1894 he was elected book editor, a position held in southern Methodism until he was elevated to the college of bishops at the last session of the general conference in Birmingham, Ala., in May, 1906. He was a member of the famous ecumenical conference of 1901 and of the general conferences of 1894, 1898, 1902 and 1906, and was secretary of the two last mentioned.

He married Miss Amelia McTyeire, daughter of the late Bishop H. N. McTyeire, first president of Vanderbilt university. Bishop Tigert leaves a wife and six children, as follows: Dr. Holland N. Tigert, Mrs. Will D. Rhea, John J. Tigert, Jr., a Rhodes scholar at Oxford, England; Miss Amelia Tigert, Miss Gayle Tigert and McTyeire Tigert.

Bishop Tigert was regarded as one of the ablest minds in southern Methodism.

Bishop Tigert's father was a Louisville contractor and the bishop himself drove a wagon for years and in this way earned enough money to educate himself.

GET TOMORROW'S CONSTITUTION FOR VANDERBILT-INDIAN GAME

WHEN the Indians and the Commodores get together on Dudley field this afternoon at Nashville the greatest fight ever pulled off on a southern gridiron will result. All Georgians who care for football are deeply interested in this contest, and in tomorrow's Constitution they will find full details of the fight. Alex Lynn, whose accounts of the local engagements have been read with so much interest, has been sent to report the game for The Constitution and will furnish a detailed story of the great contest.

AS MURDERESS 2 DAUGHTERS BRAND MOTHER

Case Without Parallel Develops In Office of District Attorney Jerome.

CHARGED BY DAUGHTERS MOTHER KILLED BABIES

And Then Burned Their Bodies in Kitchen Stove—The Accusers Refuse To Call the Woman Who Bore Them "Mother."

New York, November 21.—The spectacle of two women denouncing as a murderess the woman who brought them into the world, but when they refused to call "mother," was witnessed in the office of the district atorney today.

The women are Mrs. Marie Schoch, recently a resident of Massachusetts, and Mrs. Wilhelmina Ihrig, of this city. The mother whom they accused is Mrs. Wilhelmina Eckhart, who was arrested by representatives of the County Medical Society yesterday on a charge of having performed a criminal operation.

The arrest was made upon information furnished the society by the daughters, and the two younger women appeared voluntarily at the district attorney's office today to amplify the testimony they already had given against their mother.

Babes Killed and Cremated.

Both Mrs. Schoch and Mrs. Ihrig declared that they had seen Mrs. Eckhart kill hour-old infants and dispose of the bodies by burning them in her kitchen stove. Mrs. Ihrig declared also that her mother had quarreled with her because she refused to assist in burning the bodies of babies.

Mrs. Schoch told the district attorney that when she was three days old her mother wrapped her in a bundle of rags and cast her into the street. She was rescued by her grandmother, who reared her, and with whom she remained until she became a woman.

When she came to this country she said she found her mother conducting a disorderly house and she declared that her mother sought to have her become an inmate of the place. She refused.

The first she knew of her mother's present occupation, she said, was when Mrs. Eckhardt's little adopted son made a discovery in the house which led to the exposure and Mrs. Eckhardt's arrest.

Daughter Betrayed Mother.

When she learned of the discovery made by the little boy, Mrs. Schoch said she went to her mother about it and she declares Mrs. Eckhardt proposed that they go into partnership. This she did after consulting with representatives of the County Medical society, and with a view of causing Mrs. Eckhardt's arrest. It was while occupying this position in her mother's house, she said, that she procured the evidence which resulted in Mrs. Eckhardt's arrest.

Mrs. Ihrig came here four months ago from Regensburg, Germany. She testified that she lived with her mother after coming here and that in August last she saw her mother burn the bodies of infants.

SWIFT JOURNEY TO THE GALLOWS

Texas Makes a Record in Disposing of Dick Garrett.

Center, Tex., November 21.—Dick Garrett, the negro who killed Dr. M. M. Paul here last Saturday, was legally hanged this afternoon. The grand jury returned an indictment yesterday morning, the scaffold was constructed last night on the public square, the trial was held this morning, lasting from 9 to 11 o'clock, and the execution took place at 1:20 this afternoon.

The troops stationed at the jail to prevent threatened mob violence have departed and all excitement is now over.

Dr. Paul was killed by Garrett, whom he was endeavoring to arrest for displaying a weapon on the streets Saturday afternoon. The negro sought refuge at the home of H. B. Short and killed Dr. Paul when he entered. It was charged at the time that Short and his brother had offered protection to Garrett and instructed him to resist arrest. Today Mr. Short, who is in a state of nervous prostration, made a statement denying that he had instructed the negro to kill any one who attempted his capture. He said that when he caused the negro to be admitted to his home he believed him to be unarmed. His condition is critical.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES!

MISS BESSIE POPE BADLY INJURED

Injuries Are Painful, But Not Serious.

Just after alighting from a Peachtree street car about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Miss Bessie Pope, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wille Pope, who reside at 544 Peachtree street, was knocked down by a horse and the carriage ran over her body. She was immediately taken to her home, just across the corner, and a doctor summoned.

It was not known at the time who the driver was, but Officers Chewning and Wood were put on the case and found him to be the driver of a family residing on West Peachtree street. A case was made against the negro, which will probably be tried in the recorder's court this afternoon.

Just as the young lady stepped down from the street car, a horse which, it is stated, was being driven very fast, knocked her down, and she was thrown beneath the wheels of the carriage. Her knees, chest and sides were injured very badly. It is stated that the negro did not stop to look back to see if he had hurt any one, but drove on faster to get out of the way.

MAY ERECT $50,000 HOME

Athletic Club May Have New Suburban Club House.

All indications point to the undertaking by the Atlanta Athletic Club of the building of the handsomest suburban club house in the south—one, in fact, which will be surpassed by none in the beauty of its appointments by any in the country. It is proposed to erect a club house costing $50,000.

For some time this project has been quietly but seriously discussed among the leading members of the Athletic Club, and the proposition has so grown in favor that a meeting of the entire membership of the club has been called for next Saturday night to discuss the matter and ascertain the sentiment of the membership in reward thereto.

The Athletic Club owns the handsomest grounds of any social club in the state, but at the present time the $10,000 boat and bath house, fronting on the lake, is the only club house accommodation at the East Lake grounds.

Having spent something like $30,000 in fitting up golf links, tennis courts and in the beautification of the grounds at East Lake, it is believed that the proposition to erect a costly club house will meet with general favor among the members.

MASS MEETING OF MASONS INSURES THE NEW TEMPLE

Of the $175,000 Needed for the New Temple at the Corner of Cain and Peachtree Streets, $135,000 Has Been Subscribed.

At an enthusiastic mass meeting of Masons, held last night, $35,940 was subscribed to the fund to build a Masonic temple. This makes a total of $65,000 that has been subscribed by individuals. To this must be added $40,000 subscribed by Masonic bodies, in addition to $30,000 in cash, making a total of $135,000 of the $175,000 necessary to erect the temple.

The meeting was probably the largest gathering of Masons ever held in the city of Atlanta, fully seven hundred and fifty members of the order being present.

Prior to the business meeting an elaborate banquet was served. Music was discoursed during the meal and all enjoyed themselves hugely.

At the business meeting J. K. Orr presided as chairman, and to his splendid manner of enthusing life into an assemblage was largely due the success of the of the financial end of the evening.

Mr. Orr made several stirring speeches. He was followed by J. Wille Pope, James L. Mayson, Harry Stockdell, Captain James W. English and J. R. Wilkerson, all of whom spoke enthusiastically.

There were several subscriptions of $1,000 each, and many more for $500.

Only $40,000 more remains to be raised, and the Masons are elated over the prospect of a splendid temple soon rearing its head among the stateliest of Atlanta's buildings.

TWO THANKSGIVING DAYS IN STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

VICKSBURG, Miss., November 21.—In an examination of the new Mississippi code today it was discovered that this state will have to observe two Thanksgiving days this year. The framers of the new code unintentionally said that Thanksgiving day should be on the fourth Thursday in November instead of the last Thursday, consequently tomorrow will have to be observed as well as Thursday of next week, which was the day designated by the president. A telephone message from Jackson this afternoon from Governor Vardaman's private secretary conveyed the information that today, before the discovery of the new law, Governor Vardaman had issued a proclamation calling on the citizens to observe the same day as mentioned in the presidential proclamation.

CRIMINALS CONCEALED BY THE BLACK TROOPS

Army Officers Report on the Brownsville Case and Show How the Negro Soldiers Refused to Disclose the Identity of Murderers.

Washington, November 21.—The war department issued the following statement today concerning the negro troops ordered dismissed at Fort Reno:

"In the matter of the order discharging the enlisted men of three companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry issued by the president, application was presented to the secretary of war by a number of persons of standing asking a rehearing by the president on the ground on which the action was taken. The secretary telegraphed the president of the application and delayed the proceedings of the discharge until the president could indicate his desires. The secretary was in the meantime called out of town. No answer was received from the president. The secretary on his return did not feel justified in further delaying the execution of the order of discharge, especially in view of the fact that the secretary then learned that the president had fully and exhaustively considered the argument against the order of the persons who now applied for a rehearing. Accordingly, the secretary directed yesterday (Tuesday) that the proceedings for discharge be continued without delay."

The Report on the Negroes.

The investigation of the conduct of the negro troops of companies B, C and D, Twenty-fifth infantry, as reported upon by Major Blocksom, inspector general's department; Lieutenant Colonel Lovering, Fourth infantry, acting inspector general, and Brigadier General Garlington, inspector general of the army, was made public at the war department today in a volume entitled "The Affray at Brownsville, Tex."

Major Blocksom declares that the affair was preconcerted, and both he and General Garlington exonerate the officers from blame. General Garlington says it was evident from the first that the three companies had entered into a compact to give no information about the affair. Secretary Taft said today that no steps will be taken to make a further investigation of the conduct of the officers.

In his summary of the reports made by the other officers and of his own efforts to discover the guilty soldiers Brigadier General Garlington declares that every means of getting evidence concerning the shooting was exhausted. All the men of the three companies were talked with individually on different occasions, he says, and the dire consequences of their failure to give up the guilty soldiers were pointed out. All the soldiers avoided questions and even refused to discuss the events at Brownsville which were known to have enraged the negroes before the riot.

Negroes Conceal Their Criminals.

"The secretive nature of the race, where crimes are charged to members of their color, is well known," General Garlington says.

"Under the conditions, self-protection or self-interest is the only lever by which the casket of their minds can be pried open. Acting upon this principle, the history and record of the regiment to which they belong, the part played by these old soldiers in this record, were pointed out and enlarged upon. The odium and disgrace to the battalion and its individual members by this crime were indicated. The future effect upon the individuals and upon the battalion as a whole was referred to; and, finally, the concern of the president of the United States in the matter, his desire and the desire of the war department to separate the innocent from the guilty were explained, but without effect."

Continuing General Garlington's report says:

"No absolutely accurate verification of the rifles and men of the battalion was made on the night of August 13 in time to account for the rifles and men at the beginning of the firing or immediately upon its conclusion. The failure is explained as follows:

"The commanding officer and his associates, when the alarm was sounded, when they heard the firing, assumed that it was the city of rBownsville, and was in the hands of civilians; in other words, that the garrison was being fired into from the outside civilians. It does not appear to have occurred to any of them that certain enlisted men of the Twenty-fifth infantry had possession of their arms and were committing the crime of firing into the houses and upon the citizens of rBownsville until the mayor of the city came to the garrison and informed the commanding officer, Major Penrose, that one had been killed and another wounded by soldiers."

Their Discharge Recommended.

Major Blocksom, in his report, recommended that if satisfactory evidence concerning the identity of the criminals who "shot up" Brownsville did not come from members of the battalion, all enlisted men of the three companies present on the night of August 13 be discharged from the service and debarred from reenlistment in the army, navy or marine corps. Major Blocksom regards it particularly unfortunate for the reputation of the battalion that the officers did not discover a single clew to the "terrible preconcerted crime," in the investigation that was conducted by the commanders of the colored force.

Brigadier General McCaskey, commanding the department of Texas, in a dispatch to the war department, explains the discharge of twenty-five members of the Twenty-fifth infantry on Monday after Secretary Taft had ordered the temporary suspension of the soldiers dismissed by stating that the dispatch sent from Fort Reno announcing Secretary Taft's action did not reach that post until noon on Monday, which was after the men had been discharged.

Enoch Phillips, Bowden, Ga.

Bowdon, Ga., November 21.—(Special.) Elder Enoch Phillips, a Primitive Baptist minister of considerable note, died at his home near here yesterday, at the advanced age of 79 years. He had been the pastor of Poplar Springs church—his home church—for more than forty consecutive years. He was for a number of years a member of the board of county commissioners, and has served his county—Carroll—in the legislature. He leaves a large family of children and grandchildren, many of whom are in Texas. The funeral service by Elders J. C. McGarity and Chandler.

Stops Pain

Omega Oil Pains are very much alike. As the old saying goes, "Six of one are half a dozen of the other." The principal difference between pains is the names by which they are called. The name doesn't amount to anything. If the pain is in the back it is called one thing, and if it is in the leg it is called another, and yet if you should change those names the pain would hurt just as bad. Omega Oil stops pain. The trouble may be in the neck, shoulders, back, arms, elbows, wrists, hips, legs, knees, ankles or feet. No matter. Omega Oil puts out pain in all parts of the body just as water puts out fire in all parts of a house. It has been tried so often that there is no longer any doubt about it. Millons of bottles have been used and given satisfaction everywhere. Omega Oil stops pain, and don't forget it. Three sizes: 10c., 25c., 50c. 777

WARM WELCOME FOR PREACHERS

Milledgeville's Doors Thrown Open to Conference.

The North Georgia Conference Will Convene Today in Former State Capital—It Will Be a Great Session.

By Edward Young Clarke.

Milledgeville, Ga., November 21.—(Special.)—The Methodist hosts are gathering, and every incoming train brings fresh recruits for the armed leaders of Methodism who will soon be engaged in a battle of brain and not brawn.

All Milledgeville is ready.

With wide open arms the people are standing at their doors and bidding the comers welcome to all that they have. A royal and hearty reception, the like of which he has seldom before experienced, awaits every Methodist preacher of the North Georgia conference.

Simply as an evidence of the spirit which the whole community is breathing forth, the mayor's remark to The Constitution representative is typical. He is a Catholic, but does not let his creed at such a time as this embarrass him in the least. He said:

"Are we glad they are coming? Well I should say yes! Make them have a good time and feel at home? Well, we are going to do our best, and that's a pretty good deal. The town belongs to them after they arrive. We are their servants. If they want anything we are not giving, or doing for them, they have only to speak the word.

"Let them come and know they are in the hands of friends, and good, kind and thoughtful friends, too."

It is stated on reliable authority that the fowls of the surrounding country commenced to "hike" during the early part of last month.

Old citizens of the city and surrounding territory say they have never seen such a scarcity of the feathered kingdom in these parts.

All today five committees were hard at work. They held their sessions in the court house committee rooms.

They are:

For examining applicants for admission to conference, W. P. Lovejoy, J. W. Quillian, S. A. Harris, J. A. Sewell, M. L. Underwood, Ford McRee, B. P. Allen.

To examine those desiring to enter the ministry, Fletcher Walton, W. R. Branham, R. C. Cleckler.

To examine first year graduates, S. R. Belk, J. A. Quillian, C. W. Byrd.

To examine second year graduates, J. H. Eakes, John R. Lewis, E. C. Marks.

To examine third year graduates, A. W. Williams, C. M. Verdell.

To examine fourth year graduates, Ford McRee, W. C. Fox,

These committees will meet and be hard at work all day.

Wednesday Night Meeting.

Tonight in the Methodist church a most interesting and important meeting of the Widows and Orphans' Aid Society was held. Rev. M. J. Cofer, of The Wesleyan Advocate, is president and presided at the meeting.

A report of the year's work was made.

At ten o'clock today the board of missions met in the court house and proceeded to transact its ausual yearly business.

The first conference will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Methodist church, presided over by Bishop Seth Ward. All regular sessions of the conference will be held in the Methodist church and not in the court house or old capitol building, as had been announced.

Bishop Ward Arrives.

Bishop Seth Ward arrived today. This is the first conference over which he has ever presided. He was elected bishop at the general conference last May in Birmingham.

Bishop Ward was born in Texas forty-eight years ago. He served at Houston and Galveston with great credit to himself. For the past four years he has been assistant missionary secretary of the church, with headquarters at Nashville.

Bishop Ward is considered one of the ablest men in the church.

Conference Official Program.

The program is as follows:

Wednesday evening, November 21, anniversary Widows' and Orphans' Aid Association, Rev. M. J. Cofer presiding.

Thursday morning, November 22, opening session of conference, Bishop Seth Ward presiding.

Thursday evening, Sunday school anniversary, address by Dr. H. M. Hamill, Noshville, Tenn.

Friday afternoon, November 23, address by Dr. H. M. Hamill.

Friday evening missionary anniversary, address by Dr. W. R. Lambuth, Nashville, Tenn.

Saturday evening, November 24, Epworth League anniversary, addresses by Dr. H. M. DuBose, Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. C. O. Jones, Atlanta.

Sunday morning, November 25, 9:30, conference love feast.

Sunday morning 11 o'clock, preaching by Bishop Seth Ward, followed by ordination of deacons.

Sunday afternoon, 3 o'clock, memorial service.

Sunday evening, preaching, followed by ordination of elders.

The conference will probably adjourn on Tuesday.

Through With Conferences.

It is stated on the streets here today that Dr. W. W. Wadsworth is not coming to the conference. He is said to have met a member of the conference in Atlanta yesterday, and when asked if he was coming, said: "No, I am done with such things as Methodist conferences; I am making $10,000 a year in the insurance business, and don't care to have anything more to do with a Methodist conference."

It is expected, however, that if he does not attend, he will send a letter to that conference.

Bishop Seth Ward has been closeted all the afternoon with his cabinet. This year all the boards of the North Georgia conference are to be reelected or changed. These boards serve four years. All committees met behind closed doors and no information as to business transacted could be obtained.

Widows and Orphans' Aid Society had a meeting at night. Rev. M. J. Cofer presided. Attendance good.

River Rising at Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., November 21.—The Tennessee river at this point is rising rapidly, and the danger line of 33 feet will probably be reached in a few hours. This is the highest stage in five years.

Teller Accused of $31,600 Shortage.

Cincinnati, Ohio, November 21.—B. G. Cavagna, receiving teller of the First National bank, was arrested tonight by United States Marshal Lewis. It is alleged that Cavagna is short $31,600 in his accounts.

Can't Miss It

So many ailments are purely nervous affections, that you can hardly miss it if you try Dr. Miles' Nervine. It restores nervous energy—and through its invigorating influence upon the nervous system, the organs are strengthened. The heart action is better; digestion improved, the sluggish condition overcome, and healthy activity re-established.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine is worth its weight in gold to me. I did not know what ailed me. I had a good physician but got no relief. I could not eat, sleep, work, sit or stand. I was nearly crazy. One day I picked up a paper and the first thing that met my eyes was an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Nervine, I concluded to try it and let the docter go, and I did so. After taking two bottles I could dress myself. Then I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and now I can work and go out, and have told many the benefit I have received from these remedies and several of them have been cured by it since. I am fifty-nine years old and pretty good yet."
ANNA R. PALMER, Lewistown, Pa.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

A SQUARE DEAL

Is assured you when you buy one of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formula are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native, medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. While potent to cure they are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine of proper strength. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable anti-septic and anti-ferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, "heartburn," foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sages Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even in the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate hang-on, or chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

If the sweet taste of the "Discovery," caused by the glycerine, is disliked, a few drops of lemon juice, orange or lime juice, added to each dose will make it agreeable and pleasant and will not in the slightest interfere with its benefical effects.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to endeavor to palm off upon you some nostrum of unknown composition in place of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines which are OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. Most dealers recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines because they know what they are made of and that the ingredients employed are among the most valuable that a medicine for like purposes can be made of. The same is true of leading physicians who do not hesitate to recommend them, since they know exactly what they contain and that their ingredients are the very best known to medical science for the cure of the several diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

With tricky dealers it is different.

Something else that pays them a little greater profit will be urged upon you as "just as good," or even better. You can hardly afford to accept a substitute of unknown composition and without any particular record of cures in place of Dr. Pierce's medicines which are OF KNOWN COMPOSITION and have a record of forty years of cures behind them. You know what you want and it is the dealer's business to supply that want. Insist upon it.

Delegates Arrive.

Columbus, Ga., November 21.—(Special.) The delegates to the eighth annual conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia have already begun to arrive in the city.

Several came in during the day, and quite a number arrived this evening. The delegates, of whom there will be between fifty and one hundred, will be hospitably entertained in the homes of Columbus.

The business session tomorrow will be ful of interest. The social feature of the day will be the brilliant reception in the evening at the Muscogee club.

May Invite Conference.

Columbus, Ga., November 20.—(Special.) At the morning service in the various Methodist churches of Columbus next Sunday the congregations will be given opportunity of expressing themselves, on the subject of inviting the south Georgia conference, of that church, to hold its 1907 session in Columbus.

This city has not had the conference in quite a number of years, and there is a strong sentiment that Columbus should entertain the body next fall.

Rev. O. F. Cook, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist church, is one of the leaders in the movement to secure the 1907 conference for Columbus.

JEWISH FAIR CLOSES TONIGHT

All the Surplus Dainties and Choice Articles of Fair to Be Sold Tonight.

The Beth Israel fair, one of the most successful events of its kind Atlanta has known in recent years, will be brought to a conclusion tonight.

As the clocks knock off the twelve strokes at midnight the doors to the Turners' hall will be closed.

Two weeks ago the fair began and every night since the Turners' hall has been thronged. Artistically arranged upon the floor were a dozen booths, each a store within itself. At some of the handsomely finished and attractively decorated squares and octogons there were wares for ladies, while other points were equipped for men.

Tonight the surplus stock, the overflow, will be disposed of at auction and by raffle.

NEITHER SCORE IN ATHENS GAME

Georgia Has All the Best of Tennessee, But Neither Score.

Athens, Ga., November 21.—(Special.)—Georgia and the University of Tennessee played a tie game of 0 to 0 here this afternoon. Georgia kept the ball in Tennessee territory all but two minutes of the game and her goal was never in danger.

Twice Georgia carried the ball over for what seemed to be touchdowns, but Referee Blake held in one instance that the crowd intefered and in the other that the ball was out of bounds. Once a safety was made by Georgia, but the referee held the man had called down.

The playing of Georgia in this game was her best this season. Loucks, of Tennessee, with his kicking, was a star feature. All of Georgia's team played well.

GEORGIA LEADS IN MISSIONS

This State Leads All Other States in Gifts to Missions.

Resolution Introduced Calling for a Committee of Five to Petition the Legislature to Pass a State Prohibition Law.

By John Corrigan.

Cartersville, Ga., November 21.—(Special Correspondence.)—The eighty-fifth annual session of the Georgia Baptist convention gathered in Cartersville today, the first business session being opened by Hon. W. J. Northen at 9 o'clock this morning in the pretty new Baptist church in this city.

The edifice was filled to overflowing throughout the day with delegates from all the Baptist churches of Georgia, distinguished visitors of the Baptist denomination from a distance, and numbers of well-known men and women of Cartersville. The latter showed their live interest in the deliberations, not only by their close attention, but by liberal contributions to the funds for denominational work.

A feature of the morning session was the presence of the children from the orphans' home at Hapeville, and the raising by subscription of a fund of $12,000 to go toward meeting the deficit in the building fund.

(Dr. G. A. Nunnally, of Newnan, Ga., precipitated the livest resolution of the day at the afternoon session, when he introduced a measure providing for the appointment of five members of the convention to confer with a committee of the same size from the other denominations of the state looking to a conference to devise ways and means to secure state prohibition in Georgia. He advised the convention that similar action, he had been assured, would be taken by the Methodist conference, in session at Milledgeville, and by the South Georgia conference when it meets next week in Vaodista.

Report of Missions.

Rev. J. J. Bennett, of Atlanta, submitted an exhaustive and most interesting report on the work of the mission board in Georgia. This board represents state, home and foreign missions.

The report showed that Georgia has contributed to state missions during the past year the sum of $42,000 in round numbers; to home missions, which includes missions in all the southern states, Panama, Cuba and the United States territories, the sum of $21,000; to foreign missions, $60,000; to the maintenance of the Georgia Baptist orphans' home, $15,000. In addition to this amount, a special subscription of $12,000 was taken up at the meeting today to help liquidate the debt hanging over the home.

The report showed a membership of the white Baptist churches in Georgia of 225,000. There are today in the state 2,170 churches of this denomination, about 700 pastors and nearly 1,100 Sunday schools.

Synopsis of Report.

The reading of the report on missions occupied a large portion of the morning session of the convention. The report showed that Georgia leads all the southern states in contributions to home and foreign missions. Last year Georgia led Virginia, her next nearest competitor in amount of subscription, by $12,147.24. This year Texas and Virginia have pushed Georgia close in amount subscribed for this purpose.

The report of the board, submitted at the last annual convention, showed an increase of $7,235 in gifts to state missions over the previous year. This year the increase is $10,000 over last year, or $17,000 over that of two years ago.

The report showed that in 1857, twenty years before the home mission board was created, the amount contributed to home and foreign missions was $14,996. In 1878 they amounted to $9,931, a considerable reduction. In 1905 the sum contributed was $110,065 for home and foreign missions.

The report paid a tribute to The Christian Index and entered an appeal for the support of Mercer university. Attention was called to the fact that two departments of the board's work were eleemosynary and missionary institutions. The board solicited a fund for the relief of aged ministers, of whom fifty-three are now on the rolls of the convention; many of whom are too feeble for active work.

The report called attention to the statement previously made that there are in Georgia between 500,000 and 600,000 people over the age of 10 years who are not professors of any religion. It stated that in the home mission field at present A. R. Jester, H. C. Buchholz and J. M. Walker and Frank Jackson are working. The report stressed the necessity for organization and evangelization. As a means toward this end the report urged an organization of the evangelical forces by providing a pastor's relief fund and a church building fund for the benefit of poor and struggling churches.

Foreign immigrants and work in the big cities was discussed, and attention was called to the fact that with the growth of population in big cities the proportion of Baptists decreased, or at least, did not keep pace. New Orleans was cited as an instance, and the statement was made that there were 1,000 Baptists in the city and 1,500 saloons, or one and one-half saloons for every Baptist.

The report referred to the opening of the Cuban-American college, located at Havana, and also declared that the missionary work in Panama was progressing nicely.

It was shown that the contributions to foreign missions during the past few years were satisfactory in amount, so far as Georgia was concerned, but attention was called to the fact that last year out of 2,000 churches, about 100 gave more than one-half of the total amount raised for this purpose. The report declared that if upward of $50,000 could be raised for foreign missions on such a basis, what could be done by organized and concerted effort along this line?

Temperance Matter Tonight.

Cartersville, Ga., November 21.—(Special.)—When the question of temperance is brought up for discussion tomorrow night it will no doubt precipitate a very interesting debate, and one of unusual importance, that will have a direct bearing on the present situation in Atlanta.

Dr. Gray Spoke.

Dr. B. D. Gray, of Atlanta, the secretary of the home mission board, spoke for an hour and a half tonight, and was listened to with the closest attention.

Rev. A. G. Copeland, of Gainesville, spoke of the work of the Baptist Young People's Union, and the progress of the church in north Georgia. It was one of the strongest, most forcible and eloquent addresses of the convention. Eyes were wet, and the brethren ejaculated amens in all parts of the house as he proceeded.

The other speakers were Dr. L. R. Sampey of Louisville, Ky., Rev. J. R. Lester and Rev. H. C. Bucholz.

It was proposed to add evangelism to the work of the convention.

Dr. Nunnally moved to have the educational committee meet in future a day ahead of the regular convention and prepare its report to be submitted to an educational commission which would digest them and report the substance to the convention. This was opposed by Dr. J. L. White, of Macon, who said it would work an unnecessary hardship on these members, and upon a motion the matter was referred to a committee for consideration.

Georgia Baptist Orphans' Home.

When the consideration of the Georgia Baptist Orphans' Home was taken up, the chancel was cleared and the children from the home marched in, accompanied by their teachers and temporary parents, completely filling the platform of the little church. All bore in their hands photographs of Reverend Sam Jones, presented as a souvenir of their visit.

Although Governor Northen sought to preserve the utmost decorum throughout the session and forbade any applause, the entrance of the orphan children was the signal for an ovation that he could not control.

Reverend R. D. Hawkins led the little band and was aided by John M. Green, Fred J. Cooledge and Henry Durand, of Atlanta, and Frank S. Ethridge, of Jackson, Ga., and many prominent Atlanta women, all of whom have contributed liberally to the orphanage in the past.

The report of the board of trustees of the orphanage, submitted by John M. Green, showed that the legal steps had been taken to place the property of the home directly under the ownership of the Georgia Baptist convention, through the trustees of the home, whom it should elect. He created amusement by declaring the Georgia Baptist convention was married to the orphans' home. Heretofore the relation between the convention and the home has not been one of formal ownership, but simply of guardianship.

The report, which was signed by Mrs. A. D. Adair, chairman of the trustees, showed a total membership now of 100 children and the receipt during the past year of 30 children. It was announced that there was still room for more.

The financial report showed that during the year the receipts for the building fund had amounted to $22,075.26; that $16,817.60 had been borrowed for the building, making a total of $38,892.96 and that the amount disbursed was $38,737.90, leaving a balance on hand out of the building fund of $155.06.

There was shown to be a debt on the home for borrowed money still unpaid of $16,817.60 and bills unpaid of $3,000, making a total of $19,817.60.

For the maintenance of the home the report showed that the receipts from all sources was $19,134.35 and the total disbursements were $18,212.18, leaving a balance on hand of $922.17.

Dr. S. Y. Jameson was called upon to raise on the floor the money needed to wipe out the indebtedness on the home. About $12,000 was raised in an hour.

List of Subscriptions.

The Atlanta subscriptions to the fund and the subscriptions follow:

First Baptist church, $500; E. G. Willingham, $500; Broughton's Tabernacle, $500; Second Baptist church, $500; Jackson Hill Baptist, $25; Ponce de Leon Avenue church, $1,000; Ponce de Leon Avenue church (previously subscribed), $500; J. K. Pace, $25.

Among the notable figures in the gathering were Dr. T. T. Eaton, editor of The Western Recorder and pastor, for the past 25 years, of the Baptist church of Louisville, Ky.; W. Harvey Clark and wife, who have just returned from their missionary labors in Japan for a brief vacation among friends in Georgia, after 7 years absence; Rev. T. B. Ray, secretary of the new educational board of the Southern Baptist convention, and now located in Richmond, Va.; Rev. C. T. Willingham and wife, missionaries to Japan, who are also home for short rest; Dr. J. N. Prestridge, editor of The Baptist Argus, of Louisville, Ky.; Dr. J. R. Sampey, professor of Hebrew at the Southern Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville, Ky.; Dr. R. J. Willingham, of Richmond, Va., secretary of the foreign mission board; Dr. Lansing Burroughs, pastor of the First Baptist church of Nashville, Tenn., and for many years pastor of the First Baptist church in Augusta, Ga.

The convention was, therefore, notable not alone for the record of work actually accomplished, but for the number of prominent Baptists of wide prominence it gathered together.

Dr. Nunnally Talks.

On being seen concerning his resolution providing for a committee to cooperate with committees from other denominations to consult as to means for securing state prohibition, Dr. G. A. Nunnally said:

"We believe the time has come for state-wide prohibition. The local option law and recent events in social and civil life have educated the people until they will be satisfied with nothing but absolute and complete prohibition of the sale, manufacture and importation of intoxicating liquors within the state of Georgia. The logic of money and of men and of morals demand the eternal exclusion of that evil from our state. There is no social safety; there is no protection to civic peace so long as this evil threatens, excites, inflames and disturbs the enforcement of law. My opinion is the public mind may as well prepare for it, and men interested in the sale or manufacture, may wisely make their preparations for the suppression of the traffic in Georgia. The Christian conscience has never been so aroused and the yeomanry of state have never felt so keenly the need of being rid of this monster that threatens every interest, financial, industrial, social and civil."

The following is Dr. Nunnally's resolution, which was passed:

Dr. Nunnally's Resolutions.

"Whereas, the local option law originated from the appointment of a committee from this convention in 1881, to petition the general assembly of Georgia to suppress the evils attendant upon the liquor traffic, and

"Whereas, under the operation and provisions of that law more than one hundred counties have closed the saloons within their borders, and

"Whereas, the saloon-cursed counties are struggling to rid themselves of the evils, and

"Whereas, public sentiment favoring absolute prohibition has grown.

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that now is the favorable time to press upon the proper authorities for still wider prohibition.

"Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to cooperate with similar committees from other religious bodies and with agencies from other temperance organizations, and that they be instructed to petition the general assembly in the name of the Christian people of the state, in the name of humanity and God, to enact such legislation as will be calculated to prohibit the sale, the manufacture and the importation of intoxicants within the state.

"Resolved, That to the accomplishment of this end the pastors of churches in the state be requested to preach upon this subject at an early date and that the press of the state be urged to help build up suitable sentiment for influencing proper legislation, and that all men and women be entreated to join in this movement to rid the state of the gigantic and destructive evil.

"Resolved, That we suggest the importance of the citizens in their respective counties holding conventions or mass meetings, and by resolutions or petitions urge their representatives and senators to support the legislation referred to in the foregoing resolutions."

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Costs Nothing to Try.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

A Perfect Godsend

Mrs. Bessie Spencer, completely used up, tried doctors and medicine without good results. She states that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey helped her from the start and restored her to the best of health in a short time.

MRS. BESSIE SPENCER.

Mrs. Spencer, filled with gratitude, writes:

I have been using Duffy's Pure Malt for four months and I am so glad as it has done me more good than all the doctors' medicines I have taken. I know that I worked very hard and was failing fast every day until I began to take this wonderful Pure Malt Whiskey, and I surely can praise it anywhere in the wide world, and am not ashamed to praise it amidst thousands of people. I know that it brought me out of hard suffering. I had to go up stairs one foot at a time, and when I got up in the morning I could not stand on my feet for some time, my limbs would tremble so under me, and when Duffy's was recommended to me I sent and got it as soon as I could, and before I had taken one bottle of Duffy's Malt I could walk and go up stairs very well. This medicine was a perfect godsend to me, and I expect to praise it as long as I live, and I do hope that you may sell more of it all over the land and that it may reach many a sufferer, as it would prolong their life for many years. (Signed) MRS. BESSIE SPENCER, Easton, Talbot Co., Goldsborough St., Md., April 11, 06.

R. R. COMMISSION ENJOINED IN COBB

Wadley Southern Enters Protest Against Rule 1.

Temporary injunction was granted by Judge George F. Gober in Cobb superior court yesterday morning to the Wadely Southern Railroad against the state railroad commission to prevent the enforcement of the commission's recent circular 325 applying "rule 1," known as the continuous mileage rule, to the Wadley Southern and the Central of Georgia on the ground of the ownership of the former by the latter.

This action was instituted in Cobb superior court, because Cobb county is the home of Railroad Commissioner Joseph M. Brown, and the supreme court in its decision in the Savannah stove rate case held that any suit against the commission must be instituted at the place of residence of a member of the board, or in Fulton county, which is their official residence.

Circular 325 in effect declared the Wadley Southern to be owned by the Central, and applied the continuous mileage rule to shipments passing over parts of both lines which means a reduction of 5 to 15 per cent in the rates on such shipments.

The Wadley Southern contests this action on various grounds, among other things claiming its ownership is not such as to justify the ruling, and that its enforcement would be confiscatory.

The application for injunction was filed by Judge Roger L. Gamble, representing the Wadley Southern.

Against the W. and T.

A delegation of a dozen prominent citizens from the Wrightville Board of Trade, headed by Representative W. J. Flanders, of Johnson county, appeared before the state railroad commission yesterday to urge that body to apply its famous "Rule 1" to the Central of Georgia and the Wrightsville and Tennille Railroad, on the ground that the latter is owned by the former, and is, to all intents and purposes, a part of the Central system.

The effect of such a ruling on the part of the commission would be to reduce the freight rates on shipments in which both of these roads participate by some 10 or 15 per cent according to distance, the same as in the case of the Wadley Southern since the rates of are cheaper where the mileage is continuous over the same system, than where the shipment passes over two separate lines.

The Wrightsville Board of Trade was represented by Judge J. K. Hines, of Atlanta, while Colonel A. R. Lawton, vice president and general counsel, appeared for the Central and Judge A. F. Daly, of Wrightville, president of the Wrightsville and Tennille, appeared for that line.

Evidence and arguments in the case were admitted to the commission, and it has taken the case under consideration.

SESSION WAS INTERESTING

First Day's Session of Daughters of American Revolution.

Columbus, Ga., November 21.—(Special.) Full of interest was the first day's session of the annual conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Georgia. The conference was called to order at the Muscogee court house at 11 o'clock this morning by Miss Anna Caroline Benning, regent of Oglethorpe chapter, Columbus, and who will very probably be the next state regent. Fully a half hundred delegates were present from all sections of the state, and the assembly included many of the brilliant and best-known women in Georgia.

After prayer by Rev. Dr. I. S. McElroy, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and a song, "America," by a quartette, Miss Benning presented the state regent, Mrs. James A. Rounsaville, of Rome; and the vice president general for Georgia, Mrs. Robert Emory Park.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Miss Benning, as regent of Oglethorpe chapter, and Mrs. William Pope Harrison, regent of George Walton chapter, the sentiment of both chapters and of the entire city being well expressed by the former speaker, when she said:

"Columbus is happy today—she is glad today—and she embraces you with a loving kiss of welcome."

Mrs. Edgar A. Ross, of Macon, regent of Nathaniel Macon chapter, responded to the addresses of welcome, and Mrs. Rounsaville, state regent, in formally taking charge of the conference, delivered an address on the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Honored Guests at Conference.

Several honored guests of the conference were then presented and made short talks.

Mrs. Rounsaville said that there were present several of the members of the original Ladies' Memorial Association of Columbus, the mother of all southern memorial associations. She presented Mrs. Louis S. Garrard, president of the Columbus association, to the conference.

Mrs. Samuel Spencer, of New York, vice president of the Colonial Dames, was then presented, and in a short but happy talk said that she brought warmest greetings and much love from that organization. Mrs. Spencer retains her membership in Oglethorpe chapter, D. A. R.

Mrs. P. W. Godfrey, first state vice regent, was next presented, and in a graceful talk said that from her earliest childhood she had dreamed of coming to Columbus, and this visit was peculiarly delightful to her. She said that one sad feature of this conference was the absence of one who had been much beloved by the Georgia Daughters—the late Mrs. Elisha P. Dismukes, of Columbus, who was regent of George Walton chapter, and whose untimely death so deeply grieved all who knew her.

"Griffin, Griffin, Everywhere."

Mrs. Robert Emory Park, vice president general of the national society, D. A. R., was next presented and made a most interesting talk, in which she gave a humorous description of the experience of a delegation of the D. A. R. in coming to Columbus last night from Atlanta over the Southern Railway. The train was delayed at Griffin by a freight wreck and did not reach Columbus until 2 o'clock this morning.

"It was Griffin, Griffin, everywhere," said Mrs. Park. "We looked out of the window at the shining lights and when asked what place it was were told 'Griffin.' We went a half-mile further, looked out and saw more lights and were told that we were at 'Griffin.' We went a mile back, looked out again at more lights, and it was again announced that we were at 'Griffin.' We decided that 'Griffin' covered Georgia."

In concluding her address, referring to the activity of the members of the organization, Mrs. Park said:

"The hearts of the Daughters can love, the hands of the Daughters can work, and the tongues of the Daughters can talk."

Historic Gavels.

Miss Benning said that on the regent's desk were three gavels with a history. Holding up one of them she asked Mrs. Thomas Morgan, of Atlanta chapter, Atlanta, to give its history and this Mrs. Morgan did in most interesting manner.

The gavel in question was made from a tree that grew above the grave of Patrick Henry. It was used at the first session of the Daughters of the American Revolution at Washington. It was used by Speaker Crisp at the time of the inauguration of President Cleveland. This was the gavel that Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Fairbanks held in their hands when, as presidents general, they called to order sessions of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It has been used at many state conferences. This gavel is now the property of Atlanta chapter.

"How does Atlanta happen to own it?" was a question naturally asked.

"A descendant of Patrick Henry lives in Atlanta," explained Mrs. Morgan, and the Gate City scored once more in the manner for which it is noted.

Two Georgia Gavels.

"I have here a baby gavel that we wish christened at this state conference," said Miss Benning. "It is new as a gavel, but old as wood, for it is made of Georgia pine—one of the logs that composed the fort established by Thomas Jefferson at the present site of Macon, one hundred years ago. This pine tree grew in the Ocmulgee flats. Nathaniel chapter, at Macon, secured one of the logs out of which the fort was built, and it is through their efforts that we are able to use this tiny historic gavel today."

Mrs. Robert Emory Park then gave the history of the third gavel, which was made from a tree growing over the famous Nancy Hart spring. In this connection, she said that the Daughters of the American Revolution now own the home of Nancy Hart, but have not as yet erected a permanent memorial there. This is a duty that should be discharged at an early date in the future, she said.

Following adjournment at noon, a luncheon was tendered the visitors at the elegant home of Mrs. Frederick B. Gordon by the Woman's Reading Club. This was a very delightful affair in every way, and was a pleasant revelation of the manner of hospitality that will prevail in Columbus throughout the convention.

The Afternoon Session.

Report of committees and of officers, chapter reports by regents and a brilliant address on the work of the national society by Mrs. Robert Emory Park comprised the leading features of the afternoon session.

The day's program ended with a brilliant social event—a reception at the Muscogee club, which proved to be most enjoyable. In addition to the delegates, local society was out in force, and the [illegible] was a [illegible] of [illegible] and animation. There was a long receiving line, and the reception was elaborate in all its details.

The conference will last three days. The city courtroom, where the sessions are being held, is beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and flowers.

The feature of the afternoon session of the Daughters of the American Revolution was a resolution by Mrs. Edgar R. Ross, of Macon, that the conference indorse unqualifiedly the movement inaugurated by the Federation of Woman's Clubs and other organizations in the state to have the legislature pass a law providing for compulsory education. The best way to combat the peculiar evils that afflict the south is education, she said. The aim of the negroes is social equality. The daughters of the revolution have always believed in pure blood, and should do all in their power to keep that of the southern people untainted. In Boston there are fifty marriages a year between negroes and whites. In Georgia strenuous measures in the way of educating the whites should be taken so that the white race will always stay in advance of the negro, and so that the negro cannot ever expect such a condition of affairs in Georgia as prevails in Boston in regard to intermarriage of races. Mrs. Ross' resolution was enthusiastically indorsed by several speakers, among them Miss Benning, of Columbus, who said: "People are compelled to pay taxes for educational purposes; they should also be compelled to educate their children. If the state takes this money from them and does not educate their children, it should be refunded, for it is money taken under false pretenses."

Mrs. Robert Emory Park, vice president general for Georgia, in her address, also stressed the same point. Action on Mrs. Ross' resolution was postponed, she asking that it be considered later, as unfinished business, but when it is taken up again it will be adopted probably unanimously.

Columbus, Ga., November 21.—(Special.) The afternoon session was taken up by reports of the credentials' committee and officers. Mrs. R. E. Park, of Atlanta, vice president general national association, read an address on work of the society. Speaking of illiteracy of whites in Georgia, caused Mrs. Edgar Ross, of Macon, to introduce a resolution to memorialize the legislature to enact compulsory education.

The resolution received much applause. Several speeches were made in support of its action being deferred till later. A big reception was tendered the members of the conference at the Muscogee club tonight by the local chapter.

INDIANS PLAY VANDY TODAY

South Meets East on Gridiron Today--Indians Are the Favorites.

Nashville, Tenn., November 21.—(Special.)—Another national football game will be played tomorrow. This time it is the south against the east. The Vanderbilt eleven, which is unquestionably the best Dixie affords, will face the Carlisle Indians, and every indication points to a fast and stubborn battle. Both are heavy and fast, and, while figures would give Carlisle an easy victory, supporters of the gold and black will not concede any such probability.

The Indians arrived tonight, and retired immediately after supper, the squad in perfect shape. Coach McGugin stated that the locals were also in prime condition, with one exception, this being Sam Costion, the quarter, who has a bad knee; he will, nevertheless, go in the game at the start.

Although it has been raining for four days, the weather has cleared, and indications are for ideal football weather and a fast field when the game is called. There is much betting on the game, with the Indians a favorite.

LECTURE AT KIMBALL HOUSE

Public Invited to Free Lecture on Christian Science by Noted Lecturer.

William P. McKenzie, of Cambridge, Mass., a noted lecturer on Christian Science, will deliver an address on that subject this evening at 8 o'clock in the convention hall of the New Kimball house.

The general public is cordially invited to attend this instructive lecture, for which no admission fee will be charged.

THEATERS.

At the Bijou.

"The Black Crook" is doing a splendid business at the Bijou this week, and from present indications the popular theater will be hardly large enough during the balance of the engagement to accommodate the crowds who will want to see the performance.

One of the features of the performance is the transformation scene which comes at the finish of the last act and which has been given the title of "From the Tropics to the Land of the Midnight Sun." It realistically depicts the constant changes of scenes that take place on a voyage from the tropics to the north pole.

There will be a matinee this afternoon and the regular night performance during the balance of the engagement.

"Raffles" Friday Night.

S. Miller Kent, fine actor, magnetic man-of-the-world though he is, is not the only strong attraction in "Raffles, the Amateur Cracksman," which is to be seen at the Grand Friday and Saturday nights with a Saturday matinee. The part opposite Mr. Kent's is portrayed by that clever player, Frank McCormack, as Captain Bedford, the detective. Susanne Lee is the leading woman, playing the part of Gwendolyn Conron. The other important roles are in competent hands.

Blanche Walsh Monday Night.

Those who are afraid of ghosts or skeletons had better think twice before going to see Miss Walsh, for the "Kreutzer Sonata," is no more a play for people of insular or prudish ideas than was "The Resurrection." Its pictures, however, are not as sordid, nor is it pervaded with gloom as was the Tolstoi play. Miss Walsh will be seen at the Grand Monday night.

Other plays for the week are "Simple Simon Simple" on Tuesday night; "The Virginian" with Dustin Farnum in the leading role, Wednesday and Thursday, with Thursday matinee; "The Royal Chef" on Friday night, concluding with

THE WINNING STROKE

If more than ordinary skill in playing brings the honors of the game to the winning player, so exceptional merit in a remedy ensures the commendation of the well informed, and as a reasonable amount of outdoor life and recreation is conducive to the health and strength, so does a perfect laxative tend to one's improvement in cases of constipation, biliousness, headaches, etc. It is all important, however, in selecting a laxative, to choose one of known quality and excellence, like the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., a laxative which sweetens and cleanses the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after effects, as it acts naturally and gently on the internal organs, simply assisting nature when nature needs assistance, without griping, irritating or debilitating the internal organs in any way, as it contains nothing of an objectionable or injurious nature. As the plants which are combined with the figs in the manufacture of Syrup of Figs are known to physicians to act most beneficially upon the system, the remedy has met with their general approval as a family laxative, a fact well worth considering in making purchases.

It is because of the fact that SYRUP OF FIGS is a remedy of known quality and excellence, and approved by physicians that has led to its use by so many millions of well informed people, who would not use any remedy of uncertain quality or inferior reputation. Every family should have a bottle of the genuine on hand at all times, to use when a laxative remedy is required. Please to remember that the genuine Syrup of Figs is for sale in bottles of one size only, by all reputable druggists, and that full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co., is plainly printed on the front of every package. Regular price, 50c per bottle.

S.S.S. OUR RECORD 40 YEARS OF CURES

The value of S. S. S. as a blood purifier has been thoroughly proven by its forty years of successful service in the treatment of blood and skin diseases of every character. It is the best known and most generally used blood medicine on the market today, because in the forty years of its existence it has not disappointed those who have used it, and as a result of its universal success in curing disease it has made friends EVERYWHERE. It has been on the market for forty years, and its record in that time is one of which we are justly proud—it is a record of forty years of cures. As a remedy for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and all diseases arising from an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, S. S. S. has no equal. It goes into the circulation and thoroughly cleanses it of all impurities and makes a complete and lasting cure of these troubles and disorders. It furnishes to weak, polluted blood, rich, health-giving and health-sustaining qualities, and as this pure, fresh stream circulates through the system, all parts of the body are invigorated and made strong and healthy. S. S. S. is the only blood medicine on the market that can claim absolute freedom from minerals in any form. This great medicine is the product of nature's forests and fields, and is made from the healing, cleansing juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks. It is, therefore, in addition to being a certain cure for blood troubles, an absolutely safe medicine for young or old. It is not an experiment to use S. S. S.; it is a remedy with a record and one that has proven its worth and ability by its forty years of cures. If you need a blood remedy begin the use of S. S. S., and write our physicians and they will send you a book concerning your trouble, and will give you, without charge, any medical advice.

JURY DECLARES CHISOLM SANE

Jury Was Out All Night Deliberating Over the Matter.

Birmingham, Ala., November 21.—After having been out all night, the jury in the case of the sanity of Alex R. Chisolm, former paying teller of the First National bank, who defaulted for $100,000, brought in a verdict this morning declaring that the defendant is sane and is sufficiently in possession of his mental faculties to be tried for the defalcation.

The verdict of the jury was unanimous and it is understood that little delay was encountered in reaching an agreement. Court then adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon because of the illness of a juror. At that hour the trial will proceed from the point where it left off when the insanity issue was raised by the defense, after the prosecution had rested its case.

HE SAYS WHITES WILL ROB INDIANS

Dramatic Incident Before Indian Investigating Committee.

McAlester, I. T., November 21.—There was a dramatic incident here today before the senate Indian investigation committee. Rev. J. A. Murrow, of Atoka, who is engaged in Indian educational work, addressed the committee against the removal of restrictions and in a violent speech assailed the white men of the territory as the despoilers of the Indians.

Senator Teller, of Colorado, interrupted the speaker by the statement that in a short time the state government of Oklahoma could settle these questions. Rev. Mr. Murrow broke in, "God save the full-bloods when statehood comes."

Senator C. D. Clark, of Wyoming, then asked: "Mr. Murrow, do you mean to tell me that the 1,200,000 white men of Oklahoma would conspire to rob the pitiable remnant of 18,000 full-bloods of their lands?"

"I do, sir," replied Mr. Murrow, "I firmly believe it."

"Well, then, I don't," replied Senator Clark. "I think better of the race and the new citizens of the state to believe such thing."

HEARD PROTESTS FROM CITIZENS

Street Committee Takes Up Petition of A., B. & A.

Matter Will Go Before Special Session of Council This Afternoon. Aldemanic Board Will Meet as Soon as Council Has Adjourned.

The street committee of the city council met yesterday afternoon to further consider the petition of the Gate City Terminal Company for the right to cross certain streets with the tracks of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad.

There were some protests of citizens who had not been heard, and they were given the privilege of appearing before the committee.

Members of the Temple Baptist church objected to the closing of the present Mangum street for a few blocks and the opening up of a new street where there is now an alley.

Other citizens objected to the closing of streets unless the company made some concessions.

Vice President Preston Arkwright and Attorney Morris Brandon, representing the company, stated that they were willing to do what the committee and council thought was equitable and right.

It was stated that no street would be closed more than twenty-four hours in the construction of bridges and underpasses.

Subcommittee Appointed.

The street committee appointed a subcommittee to draft a paper showing what was to be required of the company and to submit it to the committee this morning at 10 o'clock.

A report will be made by the committee at the special meeting of council this afternoon when final action will be taken.

It is believed that council will grant the right of way.

Immediately after the meeting of the city council the aldermanic board will hold a session to act on the same matter.

The aldermanic board will also consider the franchise of the Atlanta and Carolina Trolley Car Company to use certain streets in entering the city for its lines to West Point and Conyers, Ga. The aldermanic board will doubtless vote unanimously to override the veto of the mayor.

UNKNOWN MAN IDENTIFIED.

Suicide's Body Identified as That of Former Driver for Pawnee Bill Show.

The body of the unknown man who jumped from the Magnolia street bridge on Monday morning, and was killed by a railroad engine, was identified at the undertaking establishment of Barclay & Brandon yesterday. His name is Charles McCaffee, and he formerly lived in New York city.

McCaffee joined the Pawnee Bill Wild West show when they were in New York, and traveled south with them, as a driver of one of the teams. When the show arrived here he left it and went to work for the Nelson Morris Packing Company. Since that time he had not been heard of until he was killed by the engine.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been decided. Barclay & Brandon have telegraphed to New York city for instructions.

Letters to Unsuccessful Men

By the Author of Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to his Son who can raise a million dollars at an hour's notice, but who can't raise a boy.

JONAS SPURLOCK

HIS SON, JACK
who went through five thousand a year, but couldn't get through Harvard.

JONAS' BROTHER, WILLIAM who owns a bunch of cows on a mountain range, where they can't graze an hour in any direction without stepping on the mortgage.

Jonas writes to Brother William that in spite of the fact that Jack has been given everything that money can buy he has made a mess of his life.

Here follow some extracts from Brother Bill's letter in reply:

"Jack is your problem and you're welcome to it. You could solve it, but you won't, because Jack isn't wheat, or steel, or stocks, but just flesh and blood."

"If he were a million-dollar deal gone wrong, no subordinate could touch him. But when your son starts for hell in a canter, you send a hired man after him to beat him back with a club."

"Have you looked up the men who have taught Jack as carefully as those that you have hired to run your plants?"

"You expected him to associate with idlers and not be idle; to make friends among the foolish and not be a fool. That is a pretty big contract for one boy to fill, even with a father working overtime to help him."

"You and your special breed of business-men are all alike. You begin in your corner groceries sanding the sugar for pennies; and you finish in Wall Street sanding the sugar for millions."

COTTON PILING UP; CARS HARD TO GET

Fayetteville Has 1,500 Bales Lying in the Mud.

Southern Officials Say They Are Doing Everything Possible to Relieve the Situation—Case Is Heard by Commission and Action Deferred by Consent.

Hearing before the railroad commission yesterday in the case of the application of merchants and others of Fayetteville, to require the Southern railway to furnish sufficient cars to haul the accumulated cotton to the compresses, disclosed a distressing state of affairs, not only at that place, but at numerous other points on the Southern and other lines in Georgia.

At Fayetteville, according to J. W. Culpepper, who appeared as attorney for the people interested, there are accumulated nearly 3,000 bales of cotton, of which 1,500 are lying in open fields in the town, some of it in mud and water six inches deep.

The insurance companies have refused to insure it, the Southern railway has refused to issue bills of lading because it has no depot room for it, and the banks have stopped letting farmers who bring their cotton to town have money on it, because there is no place to put it and no way to protect it.

The railroad commission last week ordered the Southern to send 50 cars to Fayetteville, at the rate of ten a day, but only fifteen were sent.

Attorney Culpepper said the people had no desire to put any penalty on the railroad but only wanted relief.

The Railroad Side of It.

Attorney Albert Howell and Superintendent Egan, of this division, were before the commission to present the railroad side of it.

The Southern railway, they stated, was anxious to do, and was doing everything possible to relieve the situation.

The same conditions, practically are found at Molena, Woolsey, Woodbury and many other points on the line, and all of them are demanding relief.

The movement of cotton in the past few weeks has been unprecedented and the Southern has been hauling it into Atlanta faster than the compresses can unload it. There are between 200 and 300 cars of cotton in the Atlanta yards now waiting to be unloaded.

In order to relieve conditions along these lines the general manager of the Southern has ordered every available car sent to points on the Columbus and Fort Valley branches. Many cars are now being taken away from general merchandise and perishable freight shipments, Superintendent Egan said, in order to relieve the congested cotton shipments. It is necessary, however, to distribute these cars at various points in order to avoid discrimination, and effort is being made to this end.

Superintendent Egan said the Southern would do its utmost to relieve the conditions at Fayetteville, which, he admitted, were serious.

With that understanding further consideration of the matter was postponed by the commission, upon request of both sides until December 12.

Community Silver has achieved a popularity never approached by any other plated ware. The reasons for this remarkable success are:

First, because it has the "style" and appearance of Sterling. The Community Silver designs are carefully studied. The ornamentation is extremely rich and deep, and in both the French Gray and bright finish produces all the effects of Sterling.

Second, because it represents the truest economy. At the present price of silver the heaviest plate is the most economical. Triple plate will wear three times as long as single, while its additional cost is by no means three times as great.

For wedding, birthday or Thanksgiving presents we can show just the thing you want at a very economical price.

A thousand and one things of beauty, economy and durability can be seen in our place right now, and our salesmen will be only too glad to show and price anything in the house, regardless of whether a sale is made or not.

ATLANTA LADY IS PRESIDING

Valdosta, Ga., November 21.—(Special.) The first session of the Georgia Christian Missionary convention proper was held this morning, the previous exercises being under the auspices of the woman's missionary societies, state and national. Rev. Howard T. Cree, of Augusta, is presiding. The reports submitted at the session today and this evening were very encouraging, showing advancement in every line of Christian work over last year. Rev. George B. Ranshaw, of Cincinnati, secretary of the American Home Missionary society, reported one hundred and sixteen churches organized by his society within the last year. Rev. George W. Muckley, of Kansas City, secretary of the Church Extension society, reported $529,184.25 in his society. He expects to have one million dollars by the centennial in 1909. Rev. Howard T. Cree, president of the convention, delivered the principal address at the evening session and it was one of the finest had during the convention.

The Woman's society of Georgia missions and the Christian Woman's board of Missions have submitted excellent reports. The first of these societies organized in 1898 confines its work to Georgia and since its organization has organized a large number of churches. Mrs. B. O. Miller, of Augusta, is president. The Christian Woman's Board of Missions extends its work all over the world and during the past year raised $200,000 for missions. It was organized in 1875. Mrs. B. P. Smith, of Atlanta, is president of the Georgia society of the C. W. B. M., and is presiding over its deliberations.

ATLANTA, GA., November 22, 1906

There is now some hope that the early train will catch the schedule.

Turkey at 40 cents a pound is high roosting for the short-reach brethren.

Double tracks are all right; double-quick is what the public demands and deserves.

No Root—no Roosevelt; and Cannon says Taft has been falling off some lately.

A milk trust in Georgia would cause shredded hay to depreciate as a breakfast food.

Now watch Rockefeller flash a silver dollar on the government and say, "In this we trust!"

Congress will not take the tariff as one mouthful. It seems to be a good rag for slow-chewing purposes.

It's well that the Congo rubber trust will let Rockefeller in after the government does the bouncing act.

It is remarkable how some of the big republicans are running away from an office that is going the other way.

So the French government bars American meat? That's one foreign complication where we save our bacon.

Maybe it wouldn't do for the railroads to "take time by the forelock." In fact, they can't make time, anyhow.

The Thanksgiving dinner will come so high this time the angels will have no difficulty in hearing us say grace.

The kaiser has been hobnobbing with the Poet Ganghofer. He should beware of poets who belong to the gang.

A Michigan man found $15,000 in gold under an old carpet. No objections to beating the carpet in that way.

At this convivial Thanksgiving season our old friend, the weather bureau, invites us to take a drop of ten degrees.

The race problem is going to attack Senator Tillman when he lands in Chicago. No doubt the race problem has made its will.

The emperor of Germany boldly declares himself an optimist. But his optimism has never been put to a railroad schedule test.

The sugar trust is a bitter-sweet morsel i' the mouth; but there won't be a morsel of it left when the courts get through.

Perhaps these monster meteors the sea captains report may come from Mars. They may be firing the canal officials there.

The Pittsburg burglar observes the Sabbath. While he is sleeping through the sermon would be a good time to surround him.

The plumber has returned from his graceful European tour, and now, having covered the ground, he will proceed to fill the bill.

The country has not been lonesome during the absence of the president, and as Taft loomed larger, the "aching void" grew less.

Judge O'Sullivan has ordered a special panel for Harry Thaw. A special panel strenuously laid on earlier in the game would have saved the young man much trouble.

NOW IS THE TIME TO ACT!

When a proposed public policy meets with widespread and general approval—an approval which is the more marked by the absence of criticism—steps cannot be too quickly taken to cinch it.

Seldom has there been met in Atlanta such a unanimity of opinion upon a subject which furnishes room for contention, as is now presented regarding the solution of the saloon license problem, as offered by the special committee of council appointed to give it consideration.

Not only are all of the daily papers united in approval of this plan—a fact interesting and significant in itself—but from conservative, law-abiding citizens in every calling, the pulpit included, citizens who can only have Atlanta's best interests at heart, come strong indorsements of a system which, it is generally believed, will answer practically every objection and come nearer the true solution of the question than anything that has yet been proposed.

These conditions practically constitute a demand upon council for the committee's programme, and there is no good reason why council should not act upon it now!

Let the present council take hold without further delay, give its sanction to the committee's report and proceed with the preparation of a bill which, with legislative sanction, will amend the city's charter in the particulars required.

If the new council next year sees fit to add its indorsement and approval to the measure, as it doubtless will do, this action will only strengthen the city's hand, and weaken any now hidden objections which may, perchance, present themselves.

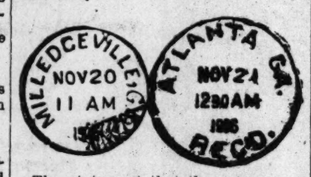

But now, while the iron is hot, is the time to strike. There is but one side to the argument; the jury has the evidence, and it knows what its verdict should be.

Don't procastinate! Do it now!

People Not Getting What They Pay For.

There is nothing that illustrates a point so well, or makes a case so clear, as a graphic presentation of the facts.

Merely to make the statement that a mail arrives eight hours late, while it is sufficient to call for severe censure, would not, perhaps, stress the importance of improved service so strongly as do these two postmarks, cut from a letter received in Atlanta yesterday morning, which tell their own story:

The statement that these two postmarks were cut from the envelope containing an important business letter, of which notice had been sent by wire and upon which had been placed A SPECIAL DELIVERY STAMP, and a reference to the published schedules, will complete the story.

The Milledgeville postoffice acknowledges receipt of this letter in its stamp at 11 a. m., in full time for the Central of Georgia train due to leave that point at 11:38 a. m., and to arrive in Macon at 1:10 p. m. This train is due to connect at Macon with the Central's train leaving for Atlanta at 1:30 p. m., a margin of twenty minutes, and which should reach Atlanta at 4:15 p. m.

In the second postmark is found the sequel—the arrival of this letter in the Atlanta postoffice at 12:30 a. m., eight hours and fifteen minutes late!

We might suggest that there is another Central train scheduled to leave Macon for Atlanta at 4:40 p. m., and due here at 8 o'clock, and that the same letter might have gone via Covington, barring delays, and reached Atlanta on the Georgia railroad at 8:15 p. m. But what's the use?

The whole truth of the matter is the people are paying the railroads through the government for something they do not get.

There have been cases where this sort of system has been characterized as "looting the public treasury," and the looters have been made to pay the penalty!

Indifference and carelessness may be criminal, as well as wilful thrusting of the hand into some one else's strong box and appropriating the contents.

With this same sort of thing going on day after day, we are at a loss to understand why the government does not demand a better execution of its mail contracts! The people are entitled to this protection in their rights, they are entitled to a service for which they pay the price, and if they cannot get it in one way, they will in another.

Already the boards of trade of Augusta, Columbus and other cities have taken the matter up and are demanding relief from conditions which have grown intolerable.

Will it take an act of congress to bring this relief?

If it does, the people will demand that, and they will get it!

The Only Way.

(From The Lake City, Fla., Index.)

All should read the article in The Atlanta Consttution on "Religion as a Race Problem Solution." It is the only method.

For the Good of the South!

The Business Men's Gospel Union of Atlanta, of which ex-Governor W. J. Northen is president, has embarked upon a crusade that is likely to make itself a definite place in history. The details will be found in a comprehensive statement published elsewhere in The Constitution of today.

The announcement means that the most conservative and substantial business men of Atlanta have enlisted in a campaign which shall prove the enforcement of religious principles to be a sufficient solution of the south's race problem. Following the lines developed in The Constitution's recent symposium, they will strive to impress upon the members of both races and all denominations the fudamental fact that if both observe with fidelity the truths they profess in their creeds mob law, friction and misunderstanding will die an inevitable death.

The movement is given practical force at the outset. These business men, who have already done so much for the city in a material and spiritual sense, recognize that upon the clergy of both races must rest the burden of vitalizing the theory of the crusade. Their cooperation has been secured. From every pulpit and in many other public places the men of God will preach to their charges that professions of religion can be hardly less than a farce when the animating spirit of those professions is violated by passion, hatred, unrestraint and lack of toleration.

Infinitely superior to man-made law are the laws of God. While there may be fancied palliation for the breaking of the first, there can be no soothing of conscience for a brutal disregard of the second—unless the religion of our fathers is based upon a tragic mockery. Religious obligation does not end with a negative observance of these principles. Self-control is much, but not all. It must be followed by the militant helping hand, the uplifting influence, the duty of the strong to the weak—each a firmly imbedded principle of the creed of Jesus Christ.

Time and experience are needed to perfect the plan. The point for congratulation is that a beginning has been made. The patriotic business men and clergy of Atlanta are heroically grappling with a problem that has lain defiant for forty years. Distinguished by all the factors of the great reform movements of history, The Constitution, in firm confidence, bids this crusade a fervent "God-speed!"

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

An Armory Suggestion.

Editor Constitution: If proper arrangements could be inaugurated by the legislature at its next session to secure the space over the railroad tracks between the Broad street and Forsyth street bridges for the headquarters of the state militia, the city of Atlanta might join forces with the state and construct a model armory with an auditorium above.

As to location, none more central or more conveniently located for taking care of troops coming into Atlanta or leaving by trains from either depot could be found. The disadvantages of noise and smoke from the trains might be eliminated by modern engineering skill.

The rapid and safe handling of large numbers of state troops may be a necessity at almost any time and concerns more localities than Atlanta. Truly,

A Friend to Brunswick.

(From The Brunswick Journal.)

In The Atlanta Constitution, Brunswick has an ever faithful ally, one who in fair weather or foul has never failed to say the good word or to defend her neighbor by the sea. Brunswick owes a great deal to Georgia's big dailies and a big slice of this to The Constitution, which has given space most freely to stories of Brunswick's development.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA"

When Egan Made the Mails.

You never hearn from Smithville these desolatin' walls
When Egan made the mails, boys, when
Egan made the mails!
They had no time to tarry then—for tellin'
jokes an' tales.
When Egan made the mails, boys, when
Egan made the mails!

Car wheels a-singin'
As they rattled o'er the rails,
'Twuz "get there, an' they got there
When Egan made the mails!

There warn't no disapp'intment—things wuz up an' on the go;
'Twuz good to hear them whistles from Tift to Tally-Ho!
An' we'd crowd the depot platform, an'
the water-tanks we'd climb
To see them trains a-hustlin' an' a-comin' in on time!

The singin' an' the ringin'—
The rattlin' o' the rails;
'Twuz "get there!" I tell you,
When Egan made the mails!

Them wuz the days o' schedules that went it fur an' grand;
They just snatched Time baldheaded, an'
made Time to beat the band!
Ef yer mother-in-law wuz scheduled the old town site to win,
You knowed the very minute that the train would roll her in!

Oh, the singin' an' the ringin',
An' the rattlin' o' the rails!
Lord send us times like them times,
When Egan made the mails!

The Trusts in Billville.

A 'possum trust is the latest. Now watch us carve it to the heart!

Turkeys are almost as high as our hope of heaven, and just about as doubtful.

The candy-pulling which was scheduled for Wednesday evening will not take place. The candy trust absorbed it before it had pulled ten yards.

So far the whisky trust has been unable to absorb the moonshine distilleries, which in this district are as frequent as the measels, but far more popular.

It's well that the silver dollar has that legend on it, "In God we Trust," but even with that it doesn't last long in this community.

Getting There!

I.

Dunno how the world will go—
Whether right, or wrong;
But ain't it just enough to know
It's goin' right along?
An' be the weather dark or fair,
Forevermore it's getting there!

The summer roses fade away,
An' sad seems plain an' hill;
But even the bleakest winter day
Dreams of the roses still.
An' sunny day, or tempest drear,
The world's forever getting there!

So, ef you want to oblige us, John, jes' fetch yer own Turkey, an' we'll furnish the knives an' forks."

WHITES BEING EMPLOYED.

Management of the Candler Building Is Replacing Negro Laborers With Whites.

There is a labor problem being dealt with in the Candler building these days. It is partially white and partially black, and wholly on the wage system. Whether one is increased or not is unknown. For the past few days it has been noticed that instead of negro men cleaning and scrubbing up the stone floors of the magnificent building, there are white women and men.

Mr. Asa Candler, Jr., was seen yesterday afternoon, but refused to make any statement for publication, other than that the white labor was being tried. Whether this innovation will be permanent has not yet been decided, and there are still some negroes at work in the different offices.

It is rumored that the white labor is hired at a higher cost.

ROME STREET CAR LINES

Change Hands—Bass Sells Out to Bush.

Rome, Ga., November 21.—(Special.)—The city electric railway and lighting plants today passed from the control of J. L. Bass and associates to S. S. Bush and a syndicate of Louisville capitalists. The purchase price of the traction and lighting properties is $382,000. Of this amount J. L. Bass receives $182,000 in cash and bonds in the sum of $200,000.

THE SAME OLD COMPLAINT.

Two Schedules Needed.

(From The Nashville Herald.)

The railroads should have more than one schedule. When the trains get behind, then they could jump to another and later schedule.

Growing Too Frequent.

(From The Milledgeville News.)

Serious railroad accidents are growing too frequent. They are inexcusable in many instances.

Very Poor Service.

(From The Lavonia Standard Gauge.)

There is no fifty miles of railroad in the Southern system that pays a better dividend, we understand, than the Elberton railroad, yet we don't think there is another line in the system that gives poorer service than it does. The mail accommodation is bad and freight facilities still worse. All for the lack of new sound crossties and good engines. Every station on the road is crowded with cotton awaiting shipment, and merchants are complaining that they cannot get their goods. A road that pays so well ought to give good service.

Disgraceful Railroad Service.

(From The Royston Record.)

Sometimes "patience ceases to be a virtue" and this is one of the times.

The Record has kept quiet on the subject of the disgraceful, indifferent, unwarranted and careless manner in which the Southern railway has treated its patrons from Toccoa to Elberton through fear of being classed as a chronic kicker.

But the thing has become so awful until this paper can keep still no longer.

Our business men here in Royston—and we suppose it's the same way in Lavonia, Bowersville, Canon and Bowman—are losing money every day in the week through this giant corporation's ill treatment.

How long? Oh, Lord! How long will this thing last?

Hasn't Georgia's railroad commission some power to do something for the people of Georgia in this matter? If they haven't, they might as well close up shop and go home and try and find some calling more suitable to their respective talents, provided the members of that representative (?) body have any.

"Never Misses a Train."

(From The Quitman Free Press.)

A traveler arrived at the depot to take an Atlantic Coast Line train two hours later than the time at which this train was scheduled to depart. Somebody asked him if he wasn't afraid he would miss his train fooling around up town that way. He said, "No; I come in any time like this and I never miss my train. As it is I'll have to wait forty minutes for this one." And he did.

"A Serious Inconvenience."

(From The Quitman Free Press.)

For nearly a year The Free Press has been insisting upon the necessity of a reform in the mail service and so far we do not see that it has done any good; in other words, the trains coming here are late, some of them every day. But we will keep on calling attention to this matter until better service is given by the roads. These daily delays are a serious inconvenience to the public and to business interests and as soon as the demand for better service becomes emphatic enough we will get better service.

Uncle Sam Begins Business.

(From The Lavonia Times.)

Fromt wo articles published elsewhere in this paper we learn that the railroad commission of Georgia has no power vested in it by the laws of Georgia to force trains to run on schedule time. Uncle Sam is taking the matter up and is going to force the mail trains to arrive on time or pay a forfeit for delays. The roads are paid every year to carry mails under certain conditions and they are subject to fines for not making schedule time.

MISS GOLDBERG TO LECTURE.

Will Lecture on Education Tonight at Young Men's Hebrew Association Hall.

Miss Minnie Goldberg, of Philadelphia, field secretary of the Jewish Chautauqua Society, will lecture tonight at the Young Men's Hebrew Association hall, 119 Piedmont avenue. Miss Goldberg, who is one of the most interesting, entertaining and polished platform speakers visiting the south, will talk on and about education. She has given her life to philanthropic work and is extensively and favorably known as a platform orator.

The lecture is free.

Miss Goldberg has been in Atlanta since Tuesday last, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Krugshaber, residents of Inman Park. Miss Goldberg lectured yesterday afternoon before the Council of Jewish Women in the Jewish Temple, corner Pryor and Richardson streets.

Wilson Ceremonies Postponed.

Philadelphia, November 21.—Owing to the non-arrival of the gunboat Dubuque, which is conveying the remains of James Wilson, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, from North Carolina to this city, today's program in connection with the interment of the patriot in Christ church burial ground has been postponed until tomorrow. The Dubuque is delayed on account of fog in Delaware bay.

State Treasurer's Report.

Montgomery, Ala., November 21.—(Special.)—The report of the state treasurer, J. Craig Smith, for the fiscal year ending September 1, shows total receipts were $3,776,546.94 and disbursements $3,365,350.96. It is shown the entire bonded debt is now $9,057,000, annual interests of $357,450.

CHRISTIAN LEAGUE FORMED TO SOLVE THE RACE PROBLEM

IN an effort to prevent future outbreaks of race trouble in Atlanta and to solve any problems that may arise, the Atlanta Business Men's Gospel Union has been at work for some weeks, and as a result has paved the way for the formation of a Christian league, through which it is hoped that the best results may be obtained.

Ex-Governor W. J. Northen is president of the Business Men's Gospel Union. Its other officers are D. I. Carson, vice president; E. S. Gay, vice president; W. H. Patterson, vice president; Dr. J. D. Turner, vice president; Marion M. Jackson, secretary; John A. Brice, assistant secretary; J. W. Patterson, treasurer; W. D. Manley, assistant treasurer; Dr. Marion McH. Hull, chairman devotional committee; John J. Eagan, chairman finance committee.

The executive committee is composed of the following: E. C. Callaway, chairman, Asa G. Candler, John J. Eagan, A. W. Farlinger, Marion McH. Hull, Frank M. Inman, Marion M. Jackson, H. C. Leonard, J. W. Patterson, W. S. Witham.

Concerning its work to preserve good feeling between the two races, the executive committee of the gospel union has given out the following statement:

"The executive committee and general officers of the Business Men's Gospel Union, in consultation and cooperation with the ministers of the city, have undertaken the readjustment of the relations of the races at the south, through the formation of a Christian league to which shall be eligible approved members of both races who will agree to promote, under the direction of the gospel, under the direction of citizenship, maintain all existing laws and promote peace and good will.

"The Christian league, as such, shall not be an organization, but its membership shall consist of those who will agree to hold themselves subject to the call of the Business Men's Gospel Union and who will agree to cooperate with it in its work as outlined in its constitution.

"With this Christian league effected, its members, both white and colored, will constitute themselves a sort of southern legion of honor, hoping to be more powerful in preserving patriotism and high morality than all laws or law officers elected to enforce them.

"When this proposition was presented to a representative body of colored ministers and colored laymen, assembled in the hall of the colored Young Men's Christian Association, it was accepted in full appreciation of the spirit in which it was offered, and in good faith and with reciprocal good will.

Initiative Taken by Whites.

"It was proper that the initiative in this movement, looking to the readjustment of the relations of the races at the south, should be undertaken by the white people, not only because of their greater numbers and superior wealth and intelligence, but for the reason that they constitute the ruling class, and are, therefore, chiefly responsible for our present social, industrial, moral and political conditions. The negro cannot act without invitation from the white man without the risk of incurring criticism and censure and probable rebuff.

"Believing that the readjustment we are seeking is to be found in he principles and the preaching of the gospel, prayer services will be held each Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the hall of the colored Young Men's Christian Association, No. 132 Auburn avenue, to which the Christian people of both races are invited.

"It has been further arranged that every minister in the city, both white and colored, shall preach a sermon the second Sunday in December on obedience to law, upholding, in the presence of their respective congregations, the majesty of the law and pleading that criminals shall be punished to the extent of the law, and at the same time insisting that all punishments shall be administered under due process and by the authority of the law.

Prominent Minister Talks.

"A prominent minister in our city, speaking of our race troubles, has publicly said:

"'The Christian religion is a working force, the function of which is to fashion men after the likeness of the loving God in whose image they were created. If in this or that section of human population it fails to perform its God-ordained function, then the only legitimate inference is, its power is arrested or perverted by the hate of those who refuse to be dominated by its energy. While the Christian religion is a universal working power, its sphere is among persons who can reject or pervert or misdirect its provisions, or come into complete harmony with them.

"'What is on trial at this time in Georgia and at the south is not the Christian religion, but those of us who profess it. We are on trial before the onlooking world. We have been trying to solve the negro problem without calling to our aid the power of the Christian religion.'

"That our people may no longer be put to shame, we are now asking the hearty and active cooperation of every Christian man in the community.

"Those who will join us in this movement will please give their names to Mr. Marion M. Jackson, secretary, No. 215 Equitable building.

"We hope to see the purpose and the plan of our effort, or something similar thereto, put into organized form for action in every community in the state and at the south."

SOUTH GEORGIA WAITS IN HOPE

Sunday May Bring Improvement on Central Railway.

It Is Hoped That Proposed Change in Central's Schedule May Alter Present Daily Delay of South Georgia Mail.

Central of Georgia mail train No. 14, while it left Atlanta on time yesterday, missed the important mail connection at Albany, and as a result thousands of citizens and business men in south Georgia were disappointed and business interfered with.

Southern railway mail train 14 left Atlanta hours late and arrived at Helena some seven hours and thirty minute late, thus missing all morning connections on the Seaobard Air Line, both eastbound and westbound.

So far as the present is concerned, there seems to be absolutely no improvement in the mail conditions in Georgia. Yesterday, as has been the case almost daily for weeks, the Central of Georgia mail train lost the connection with the Atlantic Coast Line at Albany for south Georgia. And this in spite of the fact that the Atlantic Coast Line is willing to wait an extra thirty minutes for the Central train, making forty-five minutes in all, when, by waiting this long, the mail bags from Atlanta and the esat may be carried on to the waiting citizens and business men of south Georgia. When even by holding the train for this length of time, there is no hope of securing the mail which means so much to the citizens of south Georgia, the Atlantic Coast Line having its own schedule to keep, goes on its way without the mail, and the citizens are compelled to go without their mail.

Just now, much is hoped for in the changing of the schedule of this Central train, which, beginning Sunday, will leave 21 minutes earlier than at present. The officials promise that this will permit of the making of all connections for south Georgia, but the citizens of that section have become very much discouraged according to all reports although they still hope for the promised improvement.

Southern Railway No. 37 from New York was again over three hours late in arriving in Atlanta yesterday. According to the schedule kept by The Constitution, this through train has been over two hours late every day this month with two exceptions, once when on the 5th, it was one hour and 39 mintes, and again on the 10th, when is was one hour and 45 minutes late. It has been over three hours late 13 times this month, over four hours late 8 times; over 6 hours twice and over 7 hours once. The rest of the story of yesterday's train arrivals is told in the following schedule:

THIS MARRIAGE WAS ANNULLED

Young Wife Claims She Was Forced to Submit to Ceremony.

Lynchburg, Va., November 21.—(Special.)—Before adjourning the city circuit court this afternoon Judge Barksdale entered an order declaring null and void the marriage of L. C. Burks, of this city, and Margarette Saunders Burks, of Fitzgerald, Ga., on the ground that the young woman was forced to submit to the ceremony. She was a student at Randolph Macon College, and in June, while on a visit at Blackstone her mother was summoned here by telegraph. Going to Blackstone, she returned here with her daughter and that night the marriage took place. In her deposition Mrs. Saunders says she finds now that there was no reason for the forced marriage and the couple have always maintained that their relations were proper. The suit was instituted by the wife.

Young Boy Is Killed.

Savannah, Ga., November 21.—(Special.)—Frederick Zipperer, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Zipperer, was thrown from a cart this afternoon near the government building by a runaway horse. The boy's head and face were so badly crushed that he died half an hour later.

The horse took fright at a street car.

SIEMENS-GILES COMPANY WILL BE AT GRAND TONIGHT

MLLE. FRIEDA SIEMENS, The Eminent German Pianist.

MISS CHRISTINE GILES. Soprano and Violinist.

THE Atlanta Lecture Association will present as the next number on the course the Siemens-Giles grand concert company on Thursday evening of this week. This company is the Alkahest Lyceum system's great double-star attraction. For the past eight years this system has been trying to do something for the higher inspiration of the south both in a literary and musical line. One of the greatest things it has accomplished in that direction is winning the consent of these two great musicians to go out and sing and play for the people. This company is especially commended as the embodiment of the missions of music. Their charm of personality and beauty of character adorn their gifts with the grace of pure womanhood. This company is no experiment, as both Miss Siemens and Miss Giles have appeared at the head of their own companies for the last several years.

The company is ably assisted also by a splendid young tenor, Mr. A. Leon Kronfeldt, of New York city, who has won for himself laurels wherever he has appeared.

Mlle. Frieda Siemens, Pianiste.

Wonder children are not rare today, but it is an exception when in later years they really arrive at artistic maturity to fulfil what they at first promised. It is rarely the case that one finds the promised fruit ripening naturally, and because it is rare, it is delightful to find a phenomenon gradually cease to astonish, but beginning to inspire and instruct. Such was the happy exception in the career of Joseph Hoffman, and such is the case of Mlle. Frieda Siemens, who, a few years ago as a child of 12, created such a furore in her tour with Victor Herbert's orchestra. Her pronounced success with the Boston symphony orchestra, and shortly before that with the Berlin Philharmonic Society, assigned to Miss Siemens the first rank among the younger generation of pianists. Miss Siemens' art has a singular combination of analytical penetration and refined poetic feeling and technical skill. She is on the most intimate terms with the ideal master composers, and has a superb conception of their classical works, and in their interpretation she infuses great temperatment and magnetic individuality.

"When the Alkahest found that, owing to the claims upon the time of Sara McDonald Sheridan held in the old world by European managers, that superb artist was called away to the sunny shores of Italy, it found itself at first in a quandary as to whom it could secure to wear honorably and artistically the mantle of that favorite southern singer, and in Miss Christine Giles, 'sweetest singer in all the west,' we feel that we have found one.

"Last season she came to us flushed with all the honors of a long list of chautauqua successes and headed for the Alkahest system the Giles-Blake concert company, and the tour of that company was one continued list of triumphs.

"Every style of compliment possible for a singer to receive comes to us regarding this charming young woman with the golden voice, the delightful personality, and her old concert violin on which she plays sweet obligatos while rendering the most difficult soprano numbers, and we were so delighted with her grand success that we have entrusted her to maintain standard of the singing part of the company, in which is Mlle. Frieda Siemens, greatest of all women pianists.

We have no fear for her, however, and feel sure the music lovers of the south who have not heard her will fall in love with the rich, pure tones of her bell-like voice, and will marvel at the artistic triumph of her work, in which she combines her charming singing with her merit as a violiniste."

It is not, you know, plated ware; but the result of a process by which a sheet of copper is overlaid on both sides with plates of silver, the three being so perfectly compacted and welded that the solid sheet is a perfect material for fashioning into beautiful articles.

It is perfectly durable, susceptible of most artistic etching and ornamentation, and in every way a satisfying ware.

LIBRARY CORNERSTONE LAID WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

Scene at Laying of Cornerstone of Carnegie Library, Georgia School of Technology.

DESPITE the inclement weather fully 1,000 persons, including the student body, attended the exercises incident to the laying of the cornerstone of the Carnegie library building of the Georgia School of Technology. The exercises were marked with an appropriae degree of simplicity which impressed all.

The cornerstone, a massive piece of granite, bears the inscription, "Lux et veritas" (light and truth), an appropriate phrase which was selected by Miss Hammond, the librarian.

The laying of the cornerstone was in charge of Grand Master Max Meyerhardt, of the Free and Accepted Masons of Georgia. He was assisted by T. J. Jeffries, W. L. Champion, A. A. Esterley, W. J. Pace, John Gilmer, C. H. Essig, J. N. Barfield, Fred S. Stewart, Levi Cohen, Z. B. Moon, F. M. Galbreath, R. H. Carpenter, the architect of the building; Steve P. Johnson and T. H. Ferris.

The articles placed in the receptacle of the cornerstone follow:

A portrait of Andrew Carnegie, history of the school by W. G. Perry.

Sketch of the library, by Miss Hammond, the librarian.

List of the senior students and their autographs.

Copies of the local newspapers containing announcements of Mr. Carnegie's gift to the school and the program of the cornerstone laying.

A horseshoe made in the shops of the school, tied with the colors of the school.

A ten-cent piece, a penny and a two-cent stamp.

Large Crowd Present.

Long before the hour for the exercises a large crowd had assembled on the campus and the spot near where the library building will be erected. In the center of the place outlined by the foundations there was erected a stand for the speakers which was draped in white and yellow, the college colors.

Rev. W. W. Landum opened the exercises with prayer. Dr. Landrum's invocation was eloquent.

President Matheson then announced that owing to the fact that Mr. Meyerhardt was compelled to leave the city, the regular program would be changed and the Masons would formally lay the cornerstone. As the stone was dedicated to the purposes for which it will serve there was absolute solemnity.

Chancellor Barrow was the first speaker. Dr. Barrow said that America was frequently spoken of as a money-loving country. He pointed out that in the Hall of Fame in New York out of forty men, only two were rich. These men had found a place in the hall of fame because they had known how to give. Peter Cooper and George Peabody were the men, he said, and he expressed the hope some day Andrew Carnegie's work for education would find recognition by the side of these rich men. He said that many persons had stated that all of Carnegie's gifts had a string tied to them. He considered the string a good one, since it was placed on the front of the "wagon" where it would do good instead of the rear. A library is the heart of a community; it is the heart of a college, he said.

He expressed the hope that the library would soon be filled with the best books, not only technical but general.

Governor Terrell was the next speaker. His remarks were entirely happy. He spoke of the progress being made in the establishment of industrial schools in the state and expressed the hope that the eleven positions of mechanical engineer to be filled in these schools would fall to the lot of Tech students.

CONGRESSMEN RECEIVED AVERAGE 3,000 VOTES EACH

State Capitol Annex May Soon Be Needed to Transact Business--Fortune Teller Finds Capitol Attache's Lost Purse.

THE vote for congressmen in the various congressional districts of the state was announced yesterday upon the return of Governor Terrell from South Georgia. The arrival of the returns from Spalding county made the count complete.

The total vote cast for the eleven Georgia congressmen was 33,380, an average of a little more than 3,000 to the district. The only contest was in the first district where D. B. Rigdon, republican, ran against the democratic nominee, Charles G. Edwards, of Savannah. Mr. Edwards received 4,964 votes to Mr. Rigdon's 429, the vote in that district being larger than usual as a result of the opposition.

The vote received by the other Georgia congressmen was as follows:

Second—J. M. Griggs, 3,425.
Third—E. B. Lewis, 2,386.
Fourth—W. C. Adamson, 2,705.
Fifth—L. F. Livingston, 3,030.
Sixth—C. L. Bartlett, 3,374.
Seventh—Gordon Lee, 3,132.
Eighth—W. M. Howard, 2,246.
Ninth—T. M. Bell, 3,159.
Tenth—T. W. Hardwick, 1,743. (W. H. Fleming received 3 votes.)
Eleventh—W. G. Brantley, 2,784.

The vote is regarded as an unusually small one. The commissions of the congressmen will be prepared at once and mailed to them by Governor Terrell today.

With the receipt of the Spalding county returns the vote for judges of the new state court of appeals was completed by the simple addition in each case of 172 votes, that being the number cast in Spalding. The total vote for judges of the court of appeals thus stands: Ben H. Hill, of Atlanta, 33,223; Arthur G. Powell, of Blakely, 33,214; R. B. Russell, of Winder, 33,161. The relative result is in no wise changed.

Capitol Building Too Small.

The three judges of the new state court of appeals, Ben H. Hill, Arthur G. Powell and R. B. Russell, will meet at the state capitol today at the request of Governor Terrell for the purpose of taking up the matter of the selection of the quarters which they will use in the state house.

The question of suitable quarters for the court of appeals is a perplexing one. As a matter of fact the state capitol building is already crowded, and this is not the first time incidents have occurred to suggest the necessity for an annex to provide sufficient space for the proper transaction of the state's business. Several encroachments have already been made on the legislative committee rooms on the third floor, and the result is the legislative committees are already badly crowded during the sessions. It will be necessary to take two or three of these committee rooms in providing offices for the three judges and the clerk, in addition to which a court room will have to be provided.

Governor Terrell has thought of having the new court sit in the senate chamber, which is used by the senate only fifty days during the summer, and, again it has been suggested that arrangements could be made whereby the supreme court room could be used by the court of appeals when the other court is not using it for hearing argument. The proposition is an interesting one in that it points to the fact that the time is close at hand when the state will have to provide quarters outside the capitol building for some of the officials and departments in order to relieve its overcrowded condition.

W. J. Stevens, an attache of the state agricultural department, and a son of Railroad Commissioner O. B. Stevens, had an interesting experience which culminated yesterday in the finding of a pocketbook containing $45 which he lost on Monday, and which he had scarcely expected to recover.

Unable to get any trace of his missing pocketbook and contents, Mr. Stevens Tuesday afternoon went to see a fortune teller who gives her name as Madame Del Rey, and told her simply that he had lost something which he desired to recover.

According to Mr. Stevens, Madame Del Rey told him that he had lost a pocketbook containing between $25 and $65. She traced his movements during the day on which he experienced the loss, and ended by telling him that he would recover it, and that it would be handed to him by a 16-year-old girl within a short time.

Just after breakfast yesterday morning a 16-year-old negro girl employed at Mr. Stevens' home on Fraser street, came in from the yard and handed him the pocketbook with its contents intact. She had picked it up in the coal house in the back yard where Mr. Stevens had evidently dropped it. He had already searched the coal house, knowing he had been there, but was unable to locate it.

Capitol officials were greatly interested in the matter and others in the building are already talking of consulting Madame Del Rey on matters of consequence.

Albany to Have School.

Although Dougherty county lost out in the bidding for the agricultural school in the second congressional district, the people of that county, Governor Terrell stated, propose to go ahead undismayed, and establish an industrial high school and agricultural school of their own, following Ware county, which adopted the same policy when it failed to land the eleventh district school.

Dougherty county raised $40,000 in cash in addition to the necessary land, but its bid was overtopped by that of Tift county, which, though a new addition to the Georgia map, came forth with $60,000 cash and won the prize.

The Ware county and Dougherty county schools, it is stated, will be established with the funds which were raised to bid for the state institutions, and will be along the lines of the industrial school established in Columbus, which promises to become one of the most important educational institutions in the state and in this section.

Mules in Capitol Basement.

Two mules were caught grazing on the state capitol grounds yesterday and were promptly confiscated, temporarily at least, by Capitol Guard Allen, whose duty it is to prevent such serious infractions of the rules. Probably this is the first time a couple of mules were ever imprisoned in the capitol basement, but that is where Mr. Allen kept them during the day and last night sent them to a livery stable to be cared for at the owner's expense.

Educational Meeting.

State School Commissioner W. B. Merritt, Chancellor D. C. Barrow, of the State University, and State Agent J. S. Stewart have gone upon invitation to attend a meeting of university and college officials to be held during the remainder of this week at the University of Virginia, in the interests of secondary education. The meeting comprises only officials of southern educational institutions and the principal matter to be discussed is the question of high schools with a view to more thoroughly coordinating their work with that of the higher institutions of learning.

Judge Hart Returns.

Attorney General John C. Hart returned to the city yesterday from Washington, D. C., where after perfecting the record in the case of the state of Georgia against the Tennesse Copper Company and others, he made a motion urging the United States supreme court to advance on its docket the cases of the Georgia Railroad and Central of Georgia against Comptroller General W. A. Wright, involving the taxation of the Western of Alabama stock held by them. The attorney general hopes to get this case up some time in January. It is expected the court will pass on the motion within the next few days.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tacket, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." DROWNED SEEKING LIBERTY.

New York, November 21.—Ina Williams, 15 years old, was drowned last night in an effort to escape from the Randall's island reformatory. CROWDS FLOCK TO TABERNACLE

Evangelist Wicker Meets With Great Success in Revival Work.

A wonderful meeting is now in progress in the Baptist Tabernacle. Evangelist Wicker is being greeted by the largest audiences that ever assembled in the early part of a revival meeting in the Tabernacle. There are many reasons that combine to make this true. Dr. Broughton, as everybody knows, is a great organizer, and no stone has been left unturned to put people to work. Every evening at 7 o'clock young men and women gather for prayer and spiritual preparation for the larger meeting. Personal work is the keynote of the campaign and the workers, numbering in the hundreds, are quick to seize every opportunity. Evangelist Wicker grips the large audiences as no other man that Dr. Broughton has ever called in to help win souls. His style is free and easy, perfectly natural and highly pleasing. His sermons abound in happy illustrations and when one hears him they want to come again. He is not only a gifted preacher with striking originality of thought and utterance but he is a charming gospel singer. In this his wife shares, having a sweet contralto voice, and together they sing to the joy of all present.

The chorus choir is a big card in the success of the revival. Professor Davis is heartily supported by a great chorus. They sing in a most inspiring manner. Their work is of the first order, and the new book compiled by Evangelist Wicker is full of splendid songs which the choir and congregations sing with a heartiness rarely witnessed in any place. The song service lasts from 7:30 to a little after 8 o'clock.

Many conversions are witnessed at every service. The evangelist declared that it would be unworthy of this great church should there be less than a thousand conversions, and it looks as though this will be more than accomplished.

Dr. Broughton was not at the meetings last evening, having to attend a meeting of the convention in Cartersville, but he will be present at every service hereafter. Sunday will be a day full of meetings.

SOCIETY

To Mrs. John Kiser.

MRS. JOHN KISER was the guest of honor at the beautiful reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. William H. Kiser, when several hundred of Atlanta's representative women were entertained.

The handsome home, which combines all the spaciousness of the old-fashioned home, with all the interior effect of today's art in decoration and furnishings; the beauty of the women and the fashion of their gowns, and the hospitality of the lovely young hostess, completed an occasion of great pleasure.

Mrs. Kiser and her charming sister-in-law, Mrs. John Kiser, received in the drawing room, where the tall vases, filled with pink chrysanthemums, were in exquisite harmony with the mural decorations of Du Barry rose, and the old ivory woodwork.

The oak woodwork and the terra cotta fresco of the walls, makes of the room one of substantial effect, while an added richness of decoration scheme was given in the baskets and vases of liberty roses that adorned the table and buffet.

A tall basket, filled with the roses, and the handle clustered with them, formed the table centerpiece, the whole illumined by the red-shaded lights of silver candlesticks. The bonbons were in red, and the buffet had decorations of vases filled with roses and red tipped candlesticks.

In the sitting room opposite the dining room, there were may yellow chrysanthemums gracefully arranged, and here the punch bowl was presided over by Misses Louise Hawkins, Florence Hobbs, Emma Robinson and Laura Payne, Miss Hobbs and Miss Hawkins wearing blue, and Miss Robinson and Miss Payne in white lace.

Assisting in the entertainment of the guests were Mrs. Luther C. Read, Mrs. Maddox, Mrs. Brandon, Mrs. W. D. Ellis, Jr., Mrs. Henry Inman, Mrs. Julian Field, Mrs. Wilmer Moore, Mrs. Arkwright, Mrs. Eugene R. Black.

Absolutely Worthless!

"I read 'The Incubator Baby,' and I must say it is about the most costly hour's reading I ever bought—costlier than radium. Neither wit, wisdom, nor sense in it. I wonder how many more fools will be caught by a paid review. Not equal to one number of THE LITERARY DIGEST, nor a ten-cent magazine."—Letter from Rev. J. B. HAMMEN, Wolfeville, Canada.

Absolutely Delightful!

"The light satire of the book, combined with the author's irresistible style, makes its reading absolutely delightful. It is not a sermon. It is high-class satire, and experience has shown that one bit of fun poked at a practice is more deadly shot than a hundred sermons."—Brooklyn Citizen.

"If you want to laugh, the way is easy through this story, and it is worth the price."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

ADVANCE FOLLOWS GINNERS' REPORT

Prices Reaching a New High Level for the Movement.

The Report Showed 8,531,486 Bales Ginned to November 14—Market Closed Off From Best, but Very Steady, at 20 to 26 Points Advance.

New York, November 21.—The cotton market was active today and had a strong advance following the census report, on which prices made a new high level for the bull movement. The market closed very steady at a net advance of 20@26 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 350,000 bales.

The opening was steady at a decline of 2@4 points in response to lower cables, but prices almost immediately rallied on covering by shorts and buying by spot people, which was encouraged by the reports of rainy weather from the central belt, continued firmness in the southern spot markets and the light estimates for tomorrow's receipts at Houston. The market worked up to a net advance of about 9@10 points on this demand, then reacted but showed a generally steady undertone, with fluctuations narrow and irregular until the census report was published, showing 8,531,486 bales ginned to November 14, against 7,801,180 last year and 9,786,646 bales two years ago. This report was followed by a strong advance on local and southern bull support, and the upturn caught some stop loss orders on the short side, carrying January to 10.50 and March to 10.66, or about 32 to 34 points net higher. The close was off from the best under realizing but very steady.

Estimated receipts at the ports today 68,445 bales, against 60,974 last week and 57,974 last year. For the week 410,000, against 412,648 last week and 391,182 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 24,095 bales, against 18,233 bales last year, and at Houston 30,493 bales, against 14,098 last year.

New Orleans Cotton Market.

New Orleans, November 21.—Spot cotton firm at close 1-16c up; middling 10¾c. Sales on the spot were 2,000 bales with 2,500 to arrive. Futures opened steady at a decline of 1 to 3 points. The market was inactive until the ginners' report was published, when prices advanced a total of about 30 points, the figures being considered rather bullish. The market closed steady, 28 to 35 points higher than Tuesday's final figures.

Liverpool Cotton Market.

Liverpool, November 21.—12:30 p. m.—Cotton, spots, moderate business done, prices barely steady 6 points lower; middling uplands 5.94; sales 7,000 bales, including 6,300 American; speculation and export 500; receipts 44,000, of which 43,800 American.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, November 21.—COTTON—Liverpool was disappointing and our market opened and improved immediately on a demand to cover before the ginners' report was received. The market, just before 2 o'clock, was practically unchanged from 11 o'clock. When the report was read it was interpreted differently by different people, so that sales were made 5 points lower to 2 points higher at the same moment. Then buying by bulls carried the market upward, bringing in covering orders, which brought about an advance of 25 to 30 points on the day. The report shows 8,531,000 bales ginned to date, and is accepted as bullish, judging from the advance after it was issued. Whether that interpretation will be put upon it after a careful reading and a careful comparison with other years, by states, remains to be seen. Europe sold here on the advance. We believe the weather conditions from now on will govern the market, as the ginners' report shows more cotton ginned from October 18 to November 14 than in the large crop year by some 200,000 bales.

Edmund & Charles Randolph.

Atlanta, Ga., November 21.—COTTON—Today was report day and in consequence we have had a nervous market with many ups and downs. In the early session lower levels were recorded on December, other options sold back to the low points of yesterday, then a rally back to around the high points reached. In the early afternoon the market worked up a point or two above the high point of the morning on continued covering and moderate bull support. The trading was not active and the trade was evidently disposed to the opinion that even if the census report did not have a bullish effect on the market there would be no break of consequence until after the report of the revision committee is published in the morning. A revision could be discounted on a declining, as well as an advancing market. If the low grades are penalized more heavily the effect might be discounted by a corresponding decline in the southern markets as well as by a corresponding advance in the New York market.

Just before the census report was issued showing 8,531,486 bales as ginned, versus 7,498,167 last year, January stood at 10.24 and March at 10.42; the extent of the rise was 24 to 26 points, putting March at 10.66 and January 10.50. Wall street seemed to be selling January and March on the bulges. As to what crop this ginners' report indicates, a guess is about all that is coming. I say 12,250,000 bales, and this is based on the idea that we get just as much cotton from now out as we got last year and no more. Spots at New Orleans marked up 1-16c with sales of 2,000 bales on the spot and 2,500 to arrive. At New York the spot article was up 10 points. Liverpool is due to show an advance of 10 to 11 English points to meet New York's close and 13 to 14 if they follow the late advance at New Orleans after our close. The buying fever seems to still be on, but I would only buy on the breaks of 20 to 40 points. While the decline today did not quite meet my expectations, the advance has been practically $2 per bale from the low of the morning and some set back from these figures after any opening bulge in the morning would be but natural.

HERBERT H. BROWN, Manager.

Southern Exchange.

New York, November 21.—COTTON—Notwithstanding the fact that cables were lower than expected throughout did not break yesterday's low point and good buying orders appeared throughout the morning which more than absorbed all pressure. The principal topic for discussion was the ginners' report with the expected action of the revision committee in importance and that ginners' figures would be under 8,500,000 caused the market to advance rather easily. Weather conditions were bad, but not of influence. Receipts estimates at the ports were not excessive as compared with last year, but this is attributed to bad weather. The tone of the market today was undoubtably due in some degree to buying by spinners anticipating a revision of grades in the New York market, a general belief that crop will not largely exceed 12,500,000 bales with the added fact that good grades of cotton will not be plentiful this season. The ginners' report compares with 8,906,395 on the 1st of November; 7,501,180 on the 14th of November last year, 9,786,646 on November 14, 1904-05. The percentage of crop ginned on November 14 last year on the same date was 71.3 and on the same date in 1904, 72.8. Amount ginned per day for the last report was 140,000. The ginners' report today showing 1,000,000 bales ginned in excess of last year up to the same date, is, according to our view, full proof of a crop of 12,500,000. If this crop is late in respect to the harvest it would mean even more than this. Meantime other considerations will enter the field of influence and we shall only advise the purchase of cotton on some concessions in the market.

New York November 21.—STOCKS—The price movement at the opening this morning was rather irregular, showing fractional advances in certain directions, while other issues evidenced some selling pressure and lower level of prices. After this weight was relieved the general list assumd a more decided tone with a general advancing tendency. Reading, Pennsylvania, and heretofore active Harriman issues enjoying the most attention and steadiness. Missouri, Kansas and Texas and Rock Island were well taken and the buying was said to be from what is known as the "inside," especially so of the latter property. Amalgamated Copper and Steel issues were the features of the industrials. Colorado Fuel and Pacific Mail especially strong. The latter stock and Hocking Coal are tipped for substantial advance from this level. The news items today report of Chicago shipping $10,000,000 to New York this week. Call money ruled slightly above normal, but indications point toward easier money before the end of this week. The tone of the market and character of trading suggest a strong and perhaps higher market for the remainder of this week.

Gibert & Clay.

New Orleans, November 21.—COTTON—Options in the earlier session of the foreign market were more than responsive to the cis-Atlantic decline, but later improved slightly on covering by a portion of short interest. The spot situation abroad has weakened considerable and affects less favorable views of the market. Options closed 1 point higher, while spot sales amounted to 7,000 bales at a decline in quotations of 6 points. With a governmental estimate of ginnings hanging over the market it was but natural that the volume of business should necessarily be rather restricted, hence the market prices prior to bureau were dull and uninteresting. As has often been said before, it is almost impossible for any ginning figures to date to even approximately indicate any definite or final yield as the crop is late and has been further retarded lately by the advent of an unfavorable spell of weather. Unless actual damage has accrued from the late frost and winds and rains it seems that the progress made thus far in both ginning and marketing has been eminently satisfactory. This season has already witnessed not only a full restitution for a late start, but has even surpassed by a million bales the ginnings of the previous year. It is true that we are fully a million bales behind the bumper crop year, but with anything like favorable weather a further reduction will undoubtedly be observed as the year draws to a close. The report when read showed 8,531,000 bales ginned, against 7,498,000 last year and 9,785,000 year before last.

New York, November 21.—STOCKS—Today's market was a demonstration of underlying strength and resistance to depression notwithstanding the strength of money rates and lack of outside support. The market was permitted to liquidate rather thoroughly, and after the first hour's trading appeared to require some support among the leading speculative shares, with some evidences of strength in unexpected quarters. St. Paul, Union Pacific, Reading and Copper sold off rather easily at first, and the last two were made leaders in the upturn which took place during the early afternoon. The movement of Colorado Fuel, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, Rock Island, Pacific Mail and Distillers should be taken to mean some wider speculative interest on the part of the public, and while the volume of trading today was not large, the tone of the market was good after the first hour and very little pressure was in evidence.

WHEAT MARKET WEAK IN TONE

Selling of December Option Feature of Day's Trading.

Close Was Weak With Prices Near the Lowest—December Was 1-4 to 3-8c Net Lower—Corn 1-4 to 3-8c Up—Oats and Provisions Higher.

Chicago, November 21.—The wheat market today was subjected to renewed selling pressure on the December option and a weak tone prevailed nearly all day. At the close the December delivery was off ⅛@¼c. Corn was up ⅛@⅜c. Oats were a shade higher. Provisions were 5 to 15c higher.

The feature of the day's trading was the renewed selling of the December delivery by longs and elevator interests. For a short time after the opening the market showed some firmness, because of a sharp advance in the price of wheat at Minneapolis, due to a still further falling off in receipts. Arrivals today at Minneapolis was quoted at 5½c above the December delivery. News from the southwest was bullish, but despite these advices, the market, after a slight firmness, was inclined to be weak. The total volume of trading was small. The close was weak with prices near the lowest point of the day. December opened unchanged to a shade higher at 73⅞c, sold off to 72½c and closed at 73¼@73⅜c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 313,000 bushels. Primary receipts 862,000 bushels, against 1,499,000 bushels for the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 530 cars, against 595 cars last week and 1,056 cars a year ago.

Trading in the corn pit was quiet, but the market was firm all day. Small local receipts and wet weather throughout the corn belt were the sources of the strength. The demand came largely from commission houses. December opened ⅛ to ⅛@⅜c higher at 42⅛@42⅛@42⅜c, sold up to 42⅜c and closed at 42⅛@42⅜c. Local receipts were 124 cars with 28 contract grade.

Oats were quiet but steady. There was a fair demand by commission houses, but offerings were scarce because of the decreased movement occasioned by the rough weather throughout the middle west. December opened a shade higher at 33⅝c, sold between 32½@33⅝c and 33⅜@33⅝c and closed at 33⅝c. Local receipts were 118 cars.

Although trading in provisions was not active the market was firm all day because of a decrease in hog receipts at western packing centers and an increase in the shipments of meat and lard. January pork was especially strong. Considerable disposition was shown by outsiders to buy products for investment. At the close January pork was 15c at $14.77½. Lard was 5c higher at $8.57½. Ribs were 5c higher at $7.82½@7.85.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat 39 cars; corn 147 cars; oats 139 cars; hogs 27,000 head.

CALL MONEY RATE FACTOR IN STOCKS

Market Influenced by Changing Course of Call Loans.

Advances Were Spotty and Uneven, and There Were Important Stocks Which Failed to Advance. Profit Taking Resulted in an Irregular Close.

New York, November 21.—There was a good deal of uncertainty in the movement of prices of stocks today, the varying fluctuations being mostly traceable to the changing course of the rate for call loans. When the rate ran up to 10 per cent in the first hour the resulting downward movement of stocks was fairly comprehensive. Afterwards the market showed no very consistent tone. The action of the money market was puzzling. The rise of the two previous days was in spite of the factors supposed to be working for the replenishment of loanable funds, while today's easing of money conditions seemed inconsistent with the cessation of some of yesterday's favoring influences. The recent upward course of New York exchange at Chicago was reversed today in spite of the attraction of the money rate of yesterday, and this morning. Exchange was quote at Chicago at 10 cents premium compared with 20 cents per $1,000 yesterday. Foreign money markets were disturbed by the new demand for gold from Brazil, which is making inroads on the Bank of England, but the $3,500,000 withdrawn from the Bank of Brazil today was partly compensated for by gold reserved in the London market and by over $1,000,000 received from Paris. London sentiment was quieted by reports of additional sums to be relinquished by the Bank of France for London. Time money rates here continued to recover from Monday's recession in spite of the decline in the later call loan market. Profit taking by professionals affected the whole stock list late in the day and the closing was irregular and generally below the best.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,114,000.

United States 2s registered declined ¼ per cent on call.

Sandersville, Ga., November 21.—(Special.)—The Macon, Ga., conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church convened here today, with Bishop H. M. Turner, Atanta, presiding. Three hundred and forty colored preachers will answer roll call here today, says the pastor, Rev. G. H. Holmes. He says they will discuss and read reports on the moral, religious and educational condition of the negro race, and especially of their church, during the session. The body will no doubt do much good in helping the masses of their race to better and more practical things. It is said that some of the most intelligent and influential negroes of the race will be present. Friday night the leading men of the race will discuss negro education in the south, and its results. Rev. R. D. Stinson, of Morris Brown, an institution for colored youths, in Atlanta, is to speak upon "Practical Education; the Salvation of His Race." President J. S. Flipper, Dean W. G. Alexander and Editor H. T. Johnson, of Philadelphia, will also speak.

Sometime ago we made a subdivision of the Harralson property, lying just beyond Inman Park, between Euclid avenue and Moreland avenue.

We have sold nearly all of these lots except a few on Alta avenue, which we can sell at $500 apiece. The location of this property is such as to justify our opinion that the lots will be worth $1,000 apiece in a few years. If you want a fine investment on easy terms, let us show you these lots.

Forrest & George Adair.

A CORRECT letter-head or business card will not, by itself, establish a mercantile enterprise any more than a brass sign and a roll-top desk in an up-stairs room of a sky-scraper will make an insurance company; but a poor letter-head or card may cause the recipient to turn down a proposition you are greatly interested in or hand out a cold-storage smile to your representative when he goes after business. Our Commercial-Stationery Department stands for the right kind for every business. Foote & Davies Company, The Best in Printing and the Allied Arts, 61-67 East Alabama St., Atlanta.
